The American Numismatic Association, an educational and nonprofit organization, is the largest and most active numismatic body in the world. It invites and welcomes to membership all worthy persons eleven years of age or over, who have a sincere interest in numismatics, whether they collect coins, paper money, tokens, or medals, whether advanced collectors or those only generally interested in the subject without being collectors. The association was founded in 1891, and has over 31,000 members from every state in the Union and many foreign countries. It was chartered for fifty years by Act of Congress May 9, 1912; renewed in perpetuity by Act of Congress April 10, 1962 and is a mutual organization for the benefit of its members. See table of contents for membership application location.

Headquarters—818 N. Cascade Avenue
Office Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8-5. (303) 473-9142

All association members, except Associates, receive the official publication, The Numismatist, without cost other than their annual dues. Membership applications should be accompanied by $20 to cover admittance fee and the first year's dues. Succeeding annual dues are $15. Non-member subscription, $15 per year. Single copies, $1.25. For application blanks or other information, write to Executive Vice President, Box 2366, Colorado Springs, CO 80901.

The Numismatist is an illustrated monthly which has been issued continuously since its founding in 1888. It consists of 240 pages or more in each number, with subscribers in about sixty countries. Advertising inquiries should be sent to the Advertising Coordinator. All other matters for possible publication in or concerning The Numismatist are to be forwarded to the Editor. Authors of unsolicited manuscripts are referred to the journal's "Information for Authors," published periodically throughout the year.

Although Joseph H. Merriam is well known to numismatists as Boston's foremost die sinker of the nineteenth century, his personal life is shrouded in mystery. The son of Joseph Merriam, Jr., of Concord, Mass., he had a brother, John C. Merriam, who was in business with him, and a cousin, John M. Merriam, who was a partner in the Boston law firm of Merriam, Hooper and Hilton. Joseph Merriam was married but had no children. He died in the early 1880's and was buried in Providence, Rhode Island.

If the inscription on Merriam's medals can be believed, and there is no reason to doubt it, his business was established in 1850. His earliest listing in the Boston Directory is 1854; perhaps he conducted his business in another city prior to that year, although it is odd that no record of it has been found.

It is interesting to study the following listings taken from the Boston Directory:

1854-1855

MERRIAM, JOSEPH H., SEAL PRESSES, BRANDS AND SEALS, REAR 147 1/2 WASHINGTON

1856

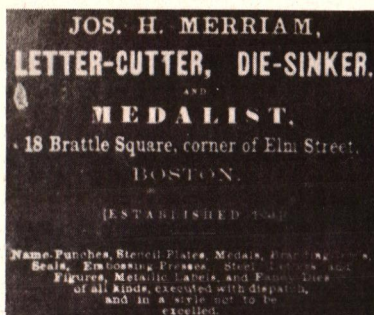

MERRIAM BROTHERS (JOSEPH H. & JOHN C.), BRANDS, SEALS AND STENCILS, 37 FANEUIL HALL SQUARE

1857-1858

MERRIAM, JOSEPH H., BRANDS, SEALS AND STENCILS, 18 BRATTLE SQUARE

In none of these listings is there any mention of Merriam's activities as a die sinker, and none of his work has been definitely attributed to this period. There does exist a counterstamped coin issued by Merriam while at the Washington Street address, but it is not known whether he struck this himself.

Merriam's die sinking activities seem to start about 1859; from then through the late 1860s he struck a variety of tokens and medals, which we shall examine later. First we will continue the listings found in the Boston Directory:

1869-1870

MERRIAM, JOSEPH H., SEAL
 AND LETTER ENGRAVER, 18
 BRATTLE SQUARE

The fact that Joseph Merriam's name does not appear in the 1865-1868 listings compounds the mystery surrounding the man's life. He does show up again in 1869 and 1870, the last years his company was in business. In the 1871 directory we find a listing for his successor, W.C. Brigham &

Company, 18 Brattle Square, "Established 1850."

Additional insight into Merriam's business can be gleaned by a study of the display advertisements he ran in the Boston Directory starting in 1861. In that year he advertised, among other things, "Fancy Dies of all kinds executed with dispatch, and in a style not to be excelled." The same advertisement is found in the directories of 1862-1864. The 1865 advertisement describes Merriam & Company as "Seal Engravers, Medalists, Die-Sinkers, Letter-Cutters, &c." It depicts an embossing seal which was manufactured by the company.

In 1867 we encounter an interesting development. Merriam & Company, "Seal Engravers and Manufacturers of the TOAD and OMEGA Embossing Presses" now has a branch office at 105 Nassau Street, New York. This venture evidently was not successful, as mention of the New York office is not made in subsequent years.

This brings us to the subject of Merriam's work as a die sinker. In the list which follows I have cataloged those pieces known or thought to have been struck by his company, or with his dies. Fortunately for collectors Merriam's name or the initial "M" appears on the majority of his issues, making attribution an easy matter. In addition, his style is distinctive and easily recognizable in most cases. Generally speaking the quality of his work is outstanding.

Merriam's dies were muled extensively, creating many rare varieties to frustrate and fascinate the collector. Some of his dies were muled with dies cut by another famous Massachusetts die sinker, John Adams Bolen of Springfield.

These mules were undoubtedly made at a later date, probably in the 1870s. According to "An Accurate and Descriptive Catalog" of his medals, which Bolen wrote in 1904, the following four of his dies were sold to A.R. McCoy of New York: WASHINGTON (bust left); THE FATHER OF OUR COUNTRY (bust of Washington left); SOLDIERS' FAIR; and HE LIVED FOR HIS COUNTRY. McCoy evidently also acquired some of Merriam's dies and had mulings struck, utilizing the four Bolen dies. No doubt this was done to add rarities to his cabinet, a common practice of the time. All of these mules were struck on 28mm planchets, one millimeter larger than the planchets used by Merriam. Seven of Merriam's dies are found on 28mm planchets, either muled with Bolen dies or with each other.

A source of some of the mulings struck from Merriam's dies could be the W.C. Brigham Company. This firm took over Merriam's business around 1870, and it is reasonable to assume that they used Merriam's equipment. (It is also possible that Merriam continued to work for the company.) Brigham struck store cards, and Storer lists as number 231 a token advertising W.C. BRIGHAM & CO'S DINING ROOM CHECK. The reverse of this piece says PAY AT THE COUNTER and has an incused number in the center. I have not seen one of these tokens, but the description indicates that it is quite similar in style to Merriam's work. Perhaps a few of the tokens listed here are the work of Brigham.

During Merriam's years in business he cut a relatively small number of dies; hardly enough to make a living from this work.

Therefore it is logical to conclude that die sinking was a sideline to Merriam's major source of income—manufacturing embossing presses and other marking devices. In 1858 Merriam was awarded patent number 19,943 for his "New and useful Palette for Stencil Markers or for Painter's use." On July 10, 1866, a patent (number 56,244) was obtained by John C. Merriam and William N. Weeden for a "New and useful Improvement in Seal or Embossing Presses." Advertisements reveal that Merriam's company manufactured LION, SALAMANDER, TOAD, OMEGA and EAGLE embossing presses.

The cataloging effort which follows is substantially complete, at least as far as die types are concerned, though in some instances it seems likely that all the metals in which an issue was struck have not been included. This is especially true for pieces struck in silver, since most of these were struck in extremely limited numbers.

Occasionally other catalogs have listed Merriam tokens struck in bronze. While it is true that some pieces could have been struck in this metal as well as in copper (these metals are quite similar), I have listed only copper. All those tokens struck in a white metal composition are listed as tin, since this is how Merriam describes the metal.

The catalog is divided into four sections. Tokens in sections A, B, and C are grouped according to planchet size - 19mm, 27mm (or 28mm), and 31mm. The last group, D, lists those few pieces which don't fit in the other sections. Within each section the pieces are listed alphabetically, by subject or merchant. Naturally in some instances this presents the dilemma of having to decide which side is the obverse. When two merchant dies (or two dies with busts) are muled, the obverse is the side coming first alphabetically. Thus, when a die with the bust of Lincoln is muled with a Washington die, the Lincoln die will be the obverse. The reader will note a few exceptions to this rule, since I have occasionally placed a piece where it fit best, rather than in strict alphabetical order.

Although I have not attempted to cross reference each token or medal with every book in which it is listed, I have included with each listing those references I considered important. The following books were used: Baker, W.S., Medallic Portraits of Washington; DeWitt, J. Doyle, A Century of Campaign Buttons; Fuld, George and Melvin, U.S. Civil War Store Cards; King, Robert P., Lincoln in Numismatics; Miller, Donald M., A Catalog of U.S. Store Cards or Merchants Tokens; and Storer, Malcolm, Numismatics of Massachusetts.

Those readers owning a copy of Storer's book (which was published in 1923) are cautioned that although it contains a wealth of information, it is also loaded with errors. Some die combinations that he lists apparently don't exist, and there are numerous other inaccuracies.

None of Merriam's tokens and medals can be considered common, and many are very rare. To give the collector of the series an idea of its relative rarity, each piece in the first three sections of this listing have been assigned one of the following designations: scarce, very scarce, rare, or very rare. These designations are based on my research of a large number of auction and sale catalogs, correspondence with other collectors, and my own experience in attempting to locate specimens for my collection. Those listings classified very rare, and there are many in this category, are known by me to exist in a quantity of fewer than six pieces!

As with most types of exnumia, there is not always a direct relationship between rarity and value in this series. Some varieties are more desirable to collectors than others, and a popular token that is only scarce might bring a higher price at auction than a rare piece of a less popular category. Merriam's Civil War tokens are a good example of this. Since they are sought after by a large number of collectors, a rare variety might be worth several times as much as a piece of equal rarity in another series.

Acknowledgments

I would like to express my appreciation to Fred Reed for making his notes on Merriam available to me, and also for supplying the early illustration of Brattle Square.

There are two varieties of this Lincoln die, with minor differences in the bust and lettering. The easiest way to distinguish them is that one type has a period after 1809 and the other type does not. Some of the "period" type tokens have a long die break running vertically through Lincoln's head. I have not examined all the varieties of Merriam's tokens utilizing these dies, so I have not attempted to designate which type was used with each token.

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

George D. Hatie

The Albuquerque Convention was a tremendous success. I extend heartfelt thanks to General Chairman Evie Kelly, all of her convention coworkers, Ruthann Brettell and the other members of our ANA staff who participated in the convention, the dealers, exhibitors, educational forum participants and all others who devoted their time, effort and ability in contributing to the success of the various convention functions.

In responding to the questionnaire regarding the election procedure, some members expressed an interest in electing Governors on a regional basis (referred to as a quote "majority" election in my last month's comments due to a stenographic error). I would like to give you some general observations on that subject:

1. In order for a candidate for the ANA Board to be elected under our present and prior systems it is necessary for him to be known nationally. National recognition is achieved primarily by a candidate appearing at various major conventions throughout the country prior to an ANA convention. Other candidates become known nationally through their numismatic writings published in all sections of the country. An able candidate who may not have the advantage of literary ability nor the time and resources to travel all over the country has difficulty in becoming elected, even though he is extremely competent and well-known within his own area. Such a candidate could be elected if he competed for office only within his region.

2. If ANA were to elect its President and Vice President at large and elects even Governors by a separate ballot in each of seven regions, the members would be represented by six Governors for whom they could not vote.

3. It has been suggested that the President, Vice President and three Governors be elected at large and that four additional Governors be elected by region. In that manner, all members of the Association would have the right to vote for six of the nine members of the Board of Governors, but would be represented by three members for whom they could not vote.

4. Another suggestion would be to elect a President and a Vice President at large and a governor from each of the seven regions, with all members of the Association having the right to vote for the seven regional Governors. That system would not be truly regional because a majority of those voting for a Governor to represent a region would live outside of that region and each Governor would be elected by the members at large.

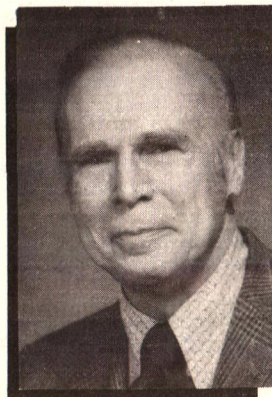

5. Suggestions have been made with respect to conducting primary elections and increasing the number of members of the Board of Governors. Such methods would be impractical and costly.

6. If all Governors are elected by region, a separate region would be required for those residing outside of the continental United States.

7. A review of the returns of the last sixteen ANA elections through 1979 discloses that in each election Governors were elected from the northern, southern, eastern and western parts of the United States.

8. If two able Board candidates, who are the choices of a majority of the members at large, live in the same region, one of them will be defeated in a regional election, not because of his lack of ability but because of his place of residence being on one side or the other of a designated boundary line.

9. Matters to be acted on by the ANA Board are not of a regional nature but concern all of the members. Every ANA member, regardless of his place of residence, is represented by all Governors and that situation will prevail even if Governors are elected by regions.

VICTORIA NAVALIS

A Jewish Connection?

by David Hendrin, ANA 90684

One of the pervasive myths of ancient numismatics is the long-standing contention that the VICTORIA NAVALIS series of Roman bronze coins issued under Vespasian, Titus, and Domitian were meant to commemorate Roman naval victories in the war fought between 66 and 70 A.D. in ancient Israel. Both the student and the collector of ancient coins relating to Judea would find it romantic and convenient if this series of coins did relate to that war, usually referred to as the "First Revolt of the Jews." However, in light of available evidence it seems clear that the VICTORIA NAVALIS coins of the Flavians did not relate to the first-century Roman victory over the Jews.

Before beginning our discussion of the central points of this matter, it is worth noting the possibility that the VICTORIA NAVALIS coins were first linked by some numismatists to the first Jewish-Roman War after a mysterious bronze coin with the legend IVDAEA NAVALIS was published in an early issue of the "Numismatic Chronicle" by M. Dumersan.¹ A sketch of this coin appeared in Madden's *History of Jewish Coinage*², although Madden apparently published the coin on hearsay, never having seen it, or even a cast of it.

Since that time numismatists have concluded that the coin in fact never existed. H. St. J. Hart refers to this coin as "the mysterious As of Titus with the unconvincing reverse legend IVDAEA NAVALIS and type showing Judea seated at the foot of a palm-tree on the other side of which is a litter of arms. The piece seems to have disappeared and Mr. Mattingly very kindly writes: 'I think you may take it that the IVDAEA NAVALIS coin does not exist as a genuine ancient piece. It looks like a blend of two genuine reverses—

IVDAEA CAPTA and VICTORIA NAVALIS. . .'"³

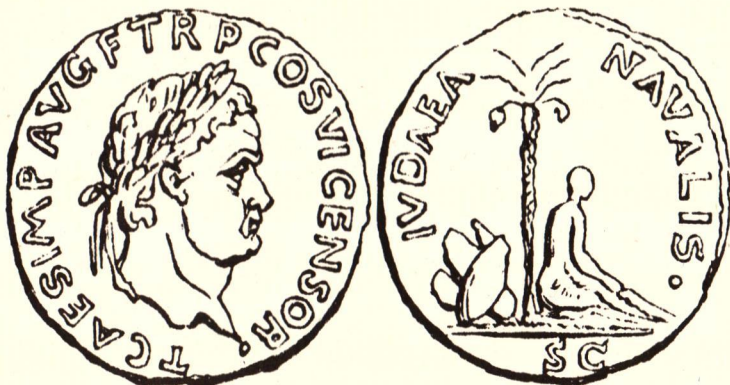

Most of the connections drawn between the VICTORIA NAVALIS coins and the Judea Capta series are no doubt a result of this mythical coin. Indeed, subsequent references have continued to cite this nonexistent coin on the basis of its publication in Madden's popular and widely reprinted books.⁴ This has further complicated the myth of the relation of the VICTORIA NAVALIS coins to ancient Judea.

Generally, those who argue that there is a link between the VICTORIA NAVALIS coins and the Jewish-Roman War cite several historical factors by way of support:

1. Quotations from the turncoat Jewish historian Josephus, who reports on a battle between Jews and Romans on the Sea of Galilee.

2. The assumption that the Roman naval victory over the Jews on the Sea of Galilee was so important that it was commemorated years later on coins minted in the city of Gadara.

3. That "nothing on the coin indicates

the adversary country, the assumption being that everyone would immediately recognize the countries involved."⁵

4. When the above points are disputed it is often argued that the VICTORIA NAVALIS coins actually commemorate an engagement off the coast of Joppa (modern Jaffo) between the Romans and the Jews.

In each of these four instances our evidence points in just the opposite direction:

1. Josephus does not specifically mention—or even allude to—the series of coins in question (or any coins, for that matter). He only relates a relatively minor battle, with makeshift boats, between the Romans and the Jews on the Sea of Galilee: "Their boats were small and built for piracy, and were weak in comparison with the rafts, and the men on board each one were so few that they dared not come to grips with the Romans who attacked them in mass formation. . . their shower of stones merely rattled on the Roman armour while they themselves were targets for Roman arrows; and when they ventured to approach they had no time to do anything before disaster overtook them and they went down, boats and all."⁶

It is true that Josephus makes such statements as ". . . the entire lake [was] stained with blood and crammed with corpses." Yet he notes that in the total battle—on the lake as well as the larger battle in defense of the town—some 6,700 were killed.⁷ This was a minor number compared to the 1.1 million killed and 97,000 Jews captured, about whom Josephus reports.⁸ Indeed, in the entire book, The Jewish Wars, less than two of more than 400 pages deal with this relatively insignificant battle.

It is also worth noting that most scholars believe that Josephus is often guilty of exaggeration, especially when it stands to enhance his own image. Since Josephus himself was commander of the defeated Jewish forces in Galilee, it seems likely that he would want to picture the Roman forces there and the casualties they inflicted as greater than they actually were. Thus it is probable that even this description of the small battle on the Sea of Galilee is exaggerated.

2. The assumption is false that since the VICTORIA NAVALIS coins do not indicate the adversary country, one can assume that everyone would immediately recognize the adversary countries involved.

A large number of bronze, silver, and gold victory coins of nonspecific type and reference were issued under many Roman emperors, including each of the Flavians.⁹ Interestingly, a large number of these generic victory types show the same motif—victory standing upon a prow—as the VICTORIA NAVALIS coins, but carry the more general inscription VICTORIA AVGVSTA.

As of Vespasian, reverse carries VICTORIA NAVALIS design and inscription.

Dupondius of Vespasian, reverse carries VICTORIA NAVALIS design and inscription.

It is possible that this reference, recurring on the coins of Vespasian and his two heirs, is a grateful gesture to the Roman fleet. According to Tacitus, the declaration of the fleet for Vespasian marked an early turning point in his civil war with Vitellius. It is not far fetched to assume that the Flavians' continuing use of the galley prow on numerous types referred to the loyalty of the fleet.¹⁰

3. Mendelsohn (citing Stevenson, 1889) notes that the Roman naval victory over the Jews on the Sea of Galilee, "was considered of such importance that it was commemorated at a later period. Coins of Marcus Aurelius, 161-180 A.D., exist struck at Gadara with the legend NAYMA ΓΑΔΑΡΕΩΝ and the type a trireme, from which it may be assumed that a naumachia [a spectacle put on before a large audience that was intended to recreate a battle well known in history] was celebrated under this emperor on the Lake of Gennesareth."¹¹

A look at a map of the area around the Sea of Galilee, however, raises the question as to why the citizens of Gadara would bother to issue a coin commemorating such a battle when their city lay a considerable distance from the body of water itself. Much closer to its banks were ancient Hippos and Tiberias, neither of which were

About the Author

David Hendrin, vice president and executive editor of United Feature Syndicate and Newspaper Enterprise Association, became interested in ancient coins while he was a volunteer in Israel in 1967. He has written 10 books, two of them in numismatics—Guide to Ancient Jewish Coins (Attic Books) and Collecting Coins (Signet), and authors a regular column for The Shekel, journal of the American Israel Numismatic Association. Hendrin served as a special numismatic consultant to Bloomingdale's Department Stores for a recent nationwide exhibit and is a numismatic consultant to The Jewish Museum in New York.

sufficiently motivated to commemorate the event on their own coinage.

Indeed, Meshorer notes that "It is unlikely that the naumachia referred to on the coins [of Gadara under Marcus Aurelius] was a representation of the sea-battle between the Jews and the Romans on Lake Kinnereth [Tiberias] in the First Jewish War, which had not been a real battle worth reconstructing. It was without importance to the city of Gadara, whose citizens could not have seen it. But it is reasonable to suppose that the people of Gadara knew all about Pompeius [Pompey] and his deeds, and were ready to honor his sea-battles with a naumachia."¹²

4. The so-called battle of Joppa was not much of a naval battle at all. Indeed, the Romans never even took to the water. The incident occurred when Vespasian sent foot soldiers and horsemen to Joppa. The inhabitants were so frightened that they fled to ships where they spent the night. Just before daylight, however, the Jews and their ships were caught in a "violent gale," during which "most of them were cast up by the waves and dashed to pieces against the cliffs, so that a wide stretch of sea was stained with their blood and the beach was covered with corpses; for the Romans set upon those who were cast up on the shore and destroyed them. The number of bodies washed up was 4,200. The Romans captured the town without any fighting and demolished it."¹³

This event, which Josephus describes in a scant two paragraphs, would hardly be an event significant enough to warrant a commemorative coin.

Further convincing evidence against any VICTORIA NAVALIS link to ancient Judea can be found in the fact that the VICTORIA NAVALIS reverse types were struck on coins issued under all three Flavian emperors—Vespasian, Titus, and Domitian. No other coin type of the entire Judea Capta series was issued under Domitian, either in Rome or in the Eastern mints. Even those coins struck under Domitian with Greek legends at Caesarea in Samaria, which have been listed along with the Judea Capta types in most books on ancient Jewish coins, are no longer to be considered true Judea Capta type coins.¹⁴

Furthermore, it seems logical that if Domitian were to have chosen to issue a single coin recalling the great victory of his father and brother over the Jews, surely he would have chosen one with a more specific legend and motif than VICTORIA NAVALIS, especially when legends such as IVDAEA, IVDAEA CAPTA, and DEVICTA IVDAEA were available. It is far more likely that all three Flavian emperors would strike a reverse type commemorating the dynasty's initial victories in battles leading to its rise to power in its own country. We have already mentioned one such possibility with regard to the Roman fleet. Other possibilities have been raised by various writers.

Hart explains that "It has been usual to try to bring the dupondii reverse types of Victoria on prow, with legend VICTORIA NAVALIS, into connection with the celebration over fallen Judaea, but this is now, and more naturally explained in other ways, and both Mr. Mattingly and Mr. Kraay remind me that naval actions were needed on the lower Rhine about this time."¹⁵ Mattingly adds in his own work that "there had been little naval fighting in the Jewish War, and the Civil War to which reference might be made, had been won on land, against the advice, or even the orders of the Emperor. The official policy of Vespasian had been that of a slow but certain victory by blockade of Rome from Egypt; and it is to call attention to the wisdom and importance of this policy that the coins were designed."¹⁶ Mattingly also notes that "Laffranchi has suggested a definite commemoration of Actium, and he is probably right in so far as a parallel is drawn between Augustus and Vespasian, both victorious in the east."¹⁷

Laffranchi's reference is to the fact that in the year 70, Vespasian was very much in the process of founding a new dynasty and wanted to establish as many links with the emperors of the past as possible. That very year was the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Actium, in which Octavian (who later became Augustus) defeated Mark Antony.

Thus, of the many possibilities it seems that the least likely events connected with the VICTORIA NAVALIS types of Flavian coins would be the Roman naval victories during the Jewish-Roman War of 66 to 70 A.D.

Call to Convention

In accordance with Article IX, Section I, of the revised bylaws of January 1, 1979, the American Numismatic Association shall meet in convention once each year, at such time and place as may be decided upon by the board of governors.

The time and place having been agreed upon by the board for the 89th Anniversary Convention, the association will meet in Cincinnati, Ohio, August 18-23, in the Stouffer's Cincinnati Towers. General chairman for the convention is Richard B. Dusterberg, 9157 Montgomery Road, Cincinnati, OH 45242. — George D. Hatie, President

The Honduras Peso

by Roberto Ulloa Llach, ANA 96950

After searching through numerous coin catalogs and other related works, it is the conclusion of this author that no in-depth study of the Pesos of Honduras has ever been published. It is hoped that this listing will give the interested numismatist some insight into the numerous varieties and overdates of this little known series.

Considering the excessive use and the inferior quality of some of the dies, together with the fineness of the silver content in these pesos, it is impossible to be certain on some of the overdates. Therefore there is a question mark indicated on several of them. The initial "R" plus a number from 1 to 10 before the coin date indicates the relative frequency of my encountering that particular date in my many years of collecting and studying the Honduras Pesos. R-10 signifies the least amount of times that I have encountered a particular date with relation to other dates in the listing. By no means do I infer that a date with a rating of R-8 should automatically be considered rarer than one with a rating of R-6; it only indicates that I have seen fewer coins of a date with a rating of R-8 than I have seen with a rating of R-6.

- R-7 1896/94/82 Based 1 double struck over 1; without base serif; round 8 double struck over square 8; 9 double struck over second square 8; double struck 6 over double struck 4. This is the same coin as the 1894/82 (Variety 2).

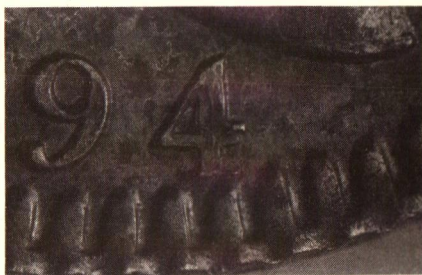

New Varieties Discovered by Authentication

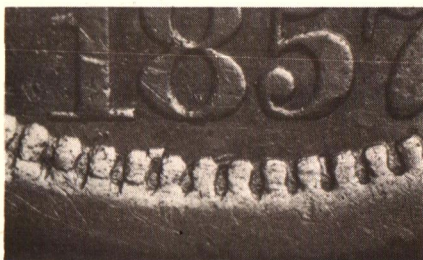

The close examination of coins that is necessary in order to check for authenticity pays off in more ways than simply avoiding the purchase of a counterfeit coin—it often leads to the discovery of varieties in coins. When ANACS staff members conduct a counterfeit detection seminar, one of the points that is stressed is that those in attendance will no longer be content with just making certain that a coin has a particular set of date digits and a mintmark. Instead, they will begin to look beyond those characteristics, to examine the texture of a coin's surface for die scratches, polishing marks and other signs of normal mint activity, as well as to check for reoccurring depressions which can be evidence of a possible counterfeit.

This kind of close and careful examination often leads to the discovery of new and little known varieties that can enhance the value of those coins, making possible a much greater return on the investment for the owner, and in the case of a newly discovered variety, a large measure of pride (maybe even a little fame) in having found something that has escaped others for years. It is with that idea in mind that we present this sampling of new or little known varieties.

NUMISMATICS More Than Just a Lot of Bullion

The principal object of National Coin Week, with its associated exhibits and publicity, is to interest noncollectors in the hobby and, candidly, to increase the membership of the American Numismatic Association.

"Coin" collectors usually abide by the dictionary definition of numismatics as being the collecting and study of coins and related items. While most collectors have fit the definition, albeit the study part of it in varying proportion, there has always been a minority concerned almost solely with pecuniary gains. The latter group has become an increasing proportion in recent years with the conviction growing that rare coins are a good investment, not unlike fine works of art.

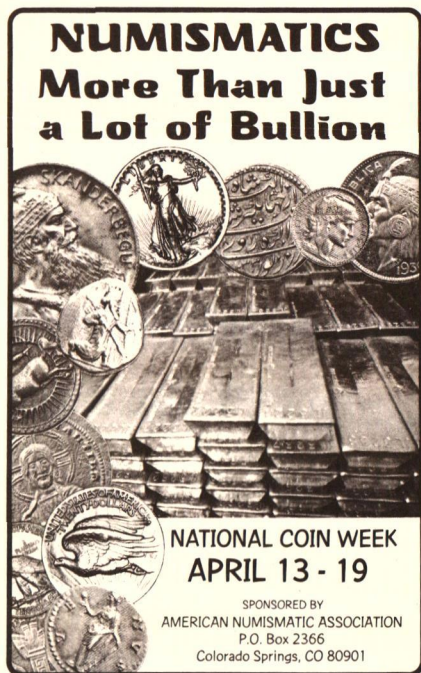

But during the past year or so a new force has operated to change collecting, present and future. Speculation in the precious metals—particularly in gold and silver—on a worldwide basis has increased the market value of many common and even some scarce coins to the extent that they have been converted to the bullion status from which they came. If the price of bullion goes still higher, as seems likely, more non-rare silver and gold coins are sure to disappear forever.

Traditionally most people started collecting coins by saving the best specimens they could find in their pocket change. Some would search through rolls of coins obtained from banks and, of course, would enlist the aid of friends in looking for needed pieces. Eventually the urge to complete a date-mint mark series would lead the diehard to a coin dealer where, except for a few rarities, reasonably nice specimens could be had without surrendering an arm or leg or the family jewels.

However, when the commonest pre-1965 dime is worth $2 or more for tossing into the melting pot, how many are going to be put aside for neophyte coin collectors? Obviously the common and inexpensive silver coins just won't be around as such; those so classed today will soon join the scarce and costly.

So, in promoting this 57th observance of National Coin Week, the American Numismatic Association is stressing the fact that "Numismatics Is More Than Just a Lot of Bullion." It is a profitable hobby—numismatists profit by learning about great people and important events of the past, the ingredients of history; by finding introductions to better understanding of economics, art and geography; and, possibly most beneficial of all, by becoming acquainted and associated with a fine group of hobbyists.

NATIONAL COIN WEEK
APRIL 13 - 19

SPONSORED BY AMERICAN NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION
P.O. Box 2366
Colorado Springs, CO 80901

Those who have experienced the genuine pleasures and rewards of numismatics should exert themselves during the National Coin Week, April 13-19, to let others know that coins are not just bullion to be bought and sold by weight.

Publicity along with activity are the keys to National Coin Week success. A club committee should approach your mayor or governor to request an edict proclaiming April 13 through 19 as National Coin Week. Contact local service clubs to see if they would like to hear an interesting program on numismatics, and alert local radio, television and newspapers as to your upcoming displays and shows. Initiate a program wherein the general public can call or bring in questions about coins which have passed down to them. The intent of NCW is to inform and to promote the benefits of the hobby.

Scrapbooks prepared on a club's activities are not a requisite to having your club recognized, but they do make an ideal means of reporting a club's activities. Each and every participant of NCW will receive an appropriate certificate from the ANA, suitable for framing. It is the club's responsibility to furnish ANA headquarters with a typed list of all participants and activities following the close of NCW activities.

The list should include the non-numismatic individuals that helped make available space for displays and publicity—local editors, newscasters, bank officials, etc. The certificates can be presented in club ceremonies after the close of NCW and thus generate more publicity for your club and its activities.

Your report to ANA may include photographs and documentation of what you or your club has done. Several such reports will be selected for publication in the Club Bulletin so that other clubs may share in your ideas. Those individuals and clubs, who, based on reports submitted to ANA, have promoted National Coin week in a superior or exceedingly original way, which exposes the hobby to the non-collecting public, will receive special recognition.

Send all activity reports to National Coin Week, American Numismatic Association, P.O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, CO 80901.

James Madison Featured on Newest Issue of U.S. Capitol Historical Society

Fred Schwengel, former Congressman from Iowa and president of the U.S. Capitol Historical Society, has announced that under the authority of the United States Congress, the official medal of the U.S. Capitol Historical Society for 1980 will be the James Madison Medal. The issuance will coincide with the opening of the James Madison Memorial Building of the Library of Congress later this spring.

The U.S. Capitol Historical Society, chartered by the Congress of the United States and a non-profit organization, is dedicated to recording and interpreting the history of the U.S. Capitol and helping toward its preservation. The James Madison Medal, to be struck in high relief, 3 inch diameter bronze and 1 1/2 inch coin relief bronze, is the third medal issued by the Society in its limited edition series of events and personages leading to the framing and adoption of the U.S. Constitution in 1789.

The 1980 issue is being designed by Robert A. Weinman, well-known medalist and sculptor from Bedford, New York. Weinman, son of the famous sculptor Adolph A. Weinman, was the winner of the ANA's 1975 Numismatic Art Award for Excellence in Medallion Sculpture and has achieved many artistic accomplishments since his career began in 1933, including more than 100 medals. He is also the sculptor of the 3 foot-10 inch diameter Madison portrait that will hang in the Library of Congress.

According to society president Schwengel, the design will receive the review of the Library of Congress and a special Fine Arts Advisory Committee, consisting of the Hon. Eva Adams, Elvira Stefanelli, Margo Russell, William T. Louth, Melvin Payne, and J. Carter Brown, chairman of Fine Arts.

FEATURING YOUNG NUMISMATISTS

ROMAN COIN PROJECT

by David R. Cervin, ANA 65523

Originated and administered by David R. Cervin, the Roman Coin Project is a program specially designed for junior members of the ANA to earn Roman and Byzantine coins for their activities in numismatics. Up to eight coins can be earned, four Roman coins in the initial program, and four Byzantine coins in the advanced section.

In the initial program, the first three coins can be earned from numismatic participation in three of six categories: educational presentations, exhibiting, writing, club office, show committee chairmanship, or receiving a badge in numismatics from your youth group. The fourth coin must be earned by completing the ANA's Young Numismatists Correspondence Course. In the advanced program, coin number five is earned by signing up a new ANA member, coin number six by signing up two additional members, coin number seven for the publication of at least 500 words in a major numismatic publication, and coin number eight for planning and executing an exhibit of the coins earned thus far in the program.

For further information or a Roman Coin Request Form write David R. Cervin, 6201 Adirondack, Amarillo, TX 79106.

It's always nice to have a second member of a family as an active participant in the Roman Coin Project. But how about three juniors from a single family all actively working at earning Roman coins? Hard to believe? If that's hard to buy then how about four juniors, again all from the same family and all earning Roman coins? Call for Ripley because another Believe-it-or-not has just happened.

When Diedre Remedios Pagua, an eleven year old ANA junior, gave a five-minute talk to the Pittsburgh-Egyptian Numismatic Society on "Why I Collect Coins," she joined her fourteen year old twin sisters, Mary Michelle and Maria Renee, and her twelve year old sister, Danielle, as active Roman coin earners in the RCP.

What did she receive for this educational accomplishment? You juniors who are not participating in this program, just feast your imagination on Diedre's latest acquisition to her newly started coin collection: an AE 4 of Arcadius, AD 383-408. Especially desirable on the reverse of this coin is a Christian cross located in the field at 8 o'clock. It was Theodosius I who first used crosses as an element on coins, beginning in AD 379, the year he decreed that Christianity should henceforth be the official religion of the Romans and that the worship of the old Roman gods would be forbidden. So Diedre has a Roman coin of great historical value so far as Christian symbolism is concerned.

As sort of a bonus, the reverse also shows Victory triumphantly dragging a captive by his hair. The obverse has a profile of Arcadius facing right.

What progress in earning coins have Diedre's three sisters made? Plenty! The fourteen year old twins have earned four Roman coins (indicating completion of the basic portion of the RCP), plus two Byzantine coins, often referred to as the Roman Empire of the East. Sister Danielle has also earned four Roman coins, plus one Byzantine coin. Their combined earned coins totals eighteen. And when they all complete the entire program they will have earned between them thirty-six ancient coins! (Each having received four Roman, four Byzantine, and one ancient Greek coin.)

Now, how, many adult families in this country can point with pride to the possessing of thirty-six ancient coins? Maybe a thousand or so, but they all cost a good bit of money, or were inherited. But the Pagua sisters will have earned all of theirs—never fear, all four girls will complete the program—without spending any money.

Now wouldn't you fifteen hundred or so juniors who are reading this and are not members of the RCP, like to earn from one to nine ancient coins?

Recent recipients of Roman and Byzantine coins are:

ANA Offers Summer Seminar Scholarships to Young Numismatists

For the eighth year the ANA has a very limited number of scholarships that cover the essential costs for deserving young numismatists to attend its summer seminar in Colorado Springs. The dates for the 12th annual summer seminar are July 13 through 19, 1980.

These scholarships are donated by friends of the Association who take this means of supporting and encouraging young collectors. The youths, age 11-17, who qualify and receive scholarships will be sent round trip airline tickets, tourist class, between their hometown airports and Colorado Springs. Their tuition fees will be covered by the sponsors, including room and board at The Colorado College on whose campus the ANA headquarters is located, and a field trip to the U.S. Denver Mint. For those participating in the class "All About Coins," the fee covers a field trip to the old mining towns of Cripple Creek and Victor.

ANA governor Florence M. Schook has announced that young numismatists, ages 11-17, who wish to apply for a scholarship and have parental approval should write to her for an application form at P.O. Box 2014, Livonia, MI 48154. Completed applications must be returned by May 15 so that the winners can be notified and arrangements completed between Mrs. Schook, ANA headquarters and the successful applicants.

Any dealer or other ANA member who wishes to sponsor a deserving young collector should contact Mrs. Schook, chairwoman of the ANA YN program at the Livonia address, or the ANA executive vice president at P.O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, CO 80901.

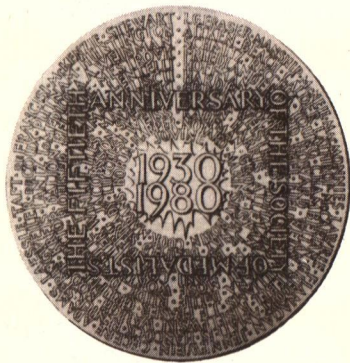

The sponsorship of each young numismatist has been set at $500. Being a contribution to a nonprofit educational organization, the fee is deductible for Federal Income Tax purposes. Sponsors will receive from the Association official receipts for fees paid and have their names published in The Numismatist and elsewhere.

Society of Medalists Continues Tradition of Outstanding Medallist Issues

Over the years the Society of Medalists has offered medal enthusiasts an outstanding array of medallist subjects by giving the country's most talented medallists the freedom to express man's highest ideals and most poignant frustrations in their own artistic approach. It was in 1930 that George Dupont Pratt began work on his dream for a society which would honor two medals a year chosen from submissions by medallist sculptors. Unfortunately, Pratt died not realizing what an overwhelming success his dream would be.

*First Place Winning Design
Chester Martin*

*Second Place Winning Design
Edward R. Grove*

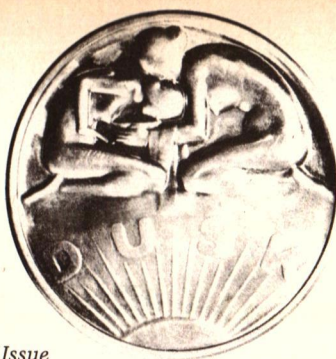

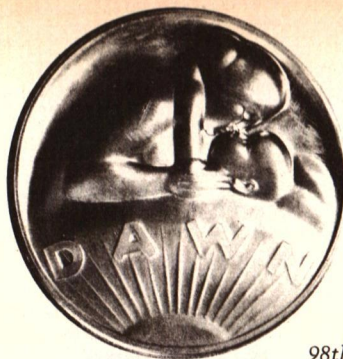

To commemorate the Society's 50th anniversary, a national sculpture competition was held to select a fitting medallist tribute. Headed by Joseph V. Noble, curator of the Museum of New York and president of Brookgreen Gardens, competition judges met on November 27th and unanimously chose Chester Martin's "The Sixth Day" for first prize. Based on the theme chosen of the natural world, the Tennessean sculptor's winning design of a delicate snail creeping across the galaxy represents the sixth day of Creation when the creatures of the world came forth. In addition to the prize money of $10,000, Martin will receive the added honor of having his design cast in three foot bronze and displayed at Brookgreen Gardens in Murrells Inlet, South Carolina as a tribute to all those sculptors who have contributed to the Society over the last 50 years.

Edward Grove, noted sculptor of West Palm Beach, Florida was awarded $2,500 second prize, for his design, "The Natural World." Both of these exceptional medals will be available to Society members in addition to the regular 1980 issues.

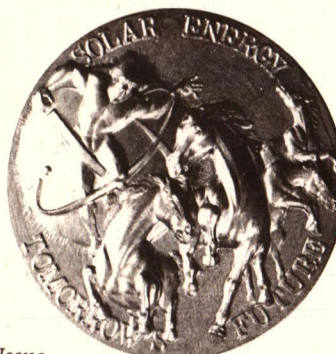

98th Issue

Moissaye Marans, a Romanian born sculptor, who became a U.S. citizen, created the 98th issue for the Society of Medalists. This touching medal entitled "Dawn to Dusk" was the last published work by Mr. Marans before his death in 1977. Showing a mother and infant on the obverse seemingly floating above a radiant sun with the inscription "Dawn," this side of the issue gives one a feeling of the beginning of life. A young girl and her mother are on the reverse shown washing at the end of the day, or dusk. The same sun is present but is setting and the word "Dusk" above the rays indicates life years later. Moissaye Marans' use of high relief on this issue makes it very striking.

Marans was also the recipient of various other honors including the Henry Hering Award of the National Sculpture Society, the Daniel Chester French Award of the National Academy of Design, and the Medal for Reflection of the Architectural League of New York.

98th Issue

99th Issue

The 99th issue for the Society was developed by Donald A. Borja of Newton Square, Pennsylvania. This medal entitled "Solar Energy and Helios the Sun God," concerns a modern and hopefully future part of our lifestyle. Borja has a fascination for classical art and mythology but he is also concerned about the energy problems facing our nation. The obverse shows Helios encircled by a single neutron and proton with the cry "Unshackle the Bonds of Helios." On the reverse, Helios has gained power, or energy, from the sun and has broken the bonds that held him. The horses on the reverse symbolize man's continuing search for a pure form of energy. The slogan on the reverse reads, "Solar Energy: Tomorrow's Future." The work by Borja on this medal is extremely graphic, pronouncing the muscles and expressions of Helios in a superb high relief.

Donald Borja received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Old Dominion University and a Master of Fine Arts from the University of Pennsylvania. His previously best known medal was a unique three-dimensional design he created for the inaugural ceremony for the President of his Alma Mater. The medal has now been adopted by the university to present to Statesmen.

100th Issue

A Missouri born artist now living in California with her husband and two children envisioned the design for the 100th issue chosen by the Society of Medalists, entitled "Laughter and Tears." The conception for the unusual two-tone medal came from many artistic circles. To quote Ms. Harper: "My inspiration came from the source of many an artistic effort from Michelangelo to Dali, the Bible: 'Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning' (Psalm 30:5), and 'To every thing there is a season, a time to every purpose under the heaven. A time to be born, and a time to die . . . a time to weep and a time to laugh' (Ecclesiastes 3:1-4)."

The bright and shiny obverse shows a full face view of a clown in a circus costume with left and right profiles full of life and joy with the inscription "Laughter, Music from the Heart." The tearful clown on the darker toned reverse depicts the same clown, also with left and right profiles with the lettering "Tears Purify the Soul." The two-tone finish on this medal, made possible for the first time because of advanced technological methods, makes this a very original issue among the Society's offerings.

To join the Society of Medalists, a bronze membership is offered at $40. Silver memberships are also available based on the silver spot price at the time of the manufacture of the issues. All members will receive the society's newsletter plus the two new issues per year. For information about joining the society, contact Executive Secretary Carol V. Cipot, Society of Medalists, Old Ridgebury Road, Danbury, CT 06810.

LETTERS

Hancock Comments on Breen Letter

Walter Breen's comments, in his tortured letter in the March '80 issue, call for some corrections, lest readers be deceived.

As I read Mr. Breen's proposal, he prefers a "rubber stamp" type of ANA governor, apparently a "yes man" who'd follow blindly the wishes of some one individual on the ANA board. Mr. Breen also fears that in modernizing ANA's election procedures to elect governors to staggered four-year terms, an imbecile or a knave might be elected, and that ANA then would be stuck with such a joker for four years. In such event, complainant Breen voices no confidence in the sanity of the other eight members of ANA's board.

If varying views were not helpful to an organization, IBM would not need its board of directors. And in the varying views of ANA's nine board members lies the necessary strength, the solid growth, which Mr. Breen hasn't recognized as fact.

Thanks for listening!

Virgil Hancock, ANA 43616

Member Happy With New Cover

May I congratulate everyone involved with The Numismatist on the exceptionally handsome cover for 1980. As a charter member of the Early American Coppers Club and wholehearted supporter of Dr. Sheldon's contention that early cents are indeed the bellwether of American numismatics, I think this cover is most appropriate for our journal.

One of the prized catalogs in my library is that of the Louis Helfenstein sale of large cents, (Lester Merkin, 1964). It is, of course, from the cover of that catalog that the new The Numismatist cover is borrowed. Collectors should seek out a copy of the original catalog as the photograph is in full, spectacular color—almost as fabulous as the coins themselves!

The quality of The Numismatist has risen noticeably in recent months and the new cover is truly "the finishing touch." Wonderful!

Dane B. Nielsen, ANA 55413

Let us know your feelings.

Send your letters to the Editor, P.O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, CO 80901. Letters may be edited or condensed. Shorter ones usually will be given preference. All should be signed originals, with the full address of the writer. Letters that are also sent to other publications usually will not be used. Names will be withheld only for extraordinary reasons.

NUMISMATIC VIGNETTES

by Glenn B. Smedley

■ According to the Daily London Telegraph, South Africa will soon market a "mini krugerrand" of one half ounce of gold. It says the reason for the decision to produce the small coins is the "insatiable demand for the coins," presumably referring to the one-ounce krugerrands.

The logic of this seems a bit unclear, even questionable. Krugerrands are bought and held largely as a convenient form of gold bullion. What is to be gained, in meeting the "insatiable demand," by stamping 1,000 half-ounce pieces of bullion instead of 500 one-ounce pieces?

■ If you read reports of prices realized at auctions, you'll probably get the impression that the sales are quite successful. If estimated values were shown in the catalog, the reported lots brought more, in many cases. But unless all lots are reported you are very apt to be getting the idea that the sale was even more successful than it actually was.

Comparison of the estimated values of the first 500 lots (typical of the entire sale) in a recent auction with their reported prices realized showed that they brought 72% of estimates. Individual lots brought from less than 20% to a few about double and one nearly triple. Conclusion: If you want quantity at bargain prices, bid low on many lots. If there are a few lots you are anxious to get, you should bid generously—especially if you feel that the auctioneer will use your high bids discreetly.

■ According to linguists, many of the words that we use regularly came into being as the inventions of frustrated writers or speakers who couldn't find accepted words to express just the thought they wanted to get across. Sometimes the fabrication is adopted quickly, such as the expression "A-OK" first used by John Powers, known to millions as the "Voice of Mission Control." (Powers, incidentally, died on New Year's Day at age 57 as a result of chronic alcoholism.)

In an article that my daily newspaper "borrowed" from another publication (a big portion of its ink is used to reprint what others originate) there appeared a word that was new to me: "privatize." It jarred and puzzled me a bit but seemed to refer to transferring a public project or activity to private ownership, or at least private management. No, there was no hint of privatizing the White House.

■ An old Arabic epigram has it that "He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not, is a fool." With that in mind, let's consider portions of two letters that appeared in successive recent issues of a numismatic publication.

"And another thing, Ms. Hackel (he doesn't know she's "Mrs."), about the Susan B. Anthony dollar, I like the size, shape of the inner border and the reverse but the obverse has got to go—it's ugly. I propose the Saint-Gaudens $20 gold piece obverse and make the coin gold colored by dipping it in gold plate, the same as the 1943 cent. Stella, do you read us, the American Coin Collectors." While not so indicated in the letter, our information is that this brash spokesman for "American Coin Collectors" has just recently passed his 13th birthday.

Another adviser wrote to "Dear Ms. Hackel: . . . the metallic content of the coin (S.B.A. dollar) should be changed to 50% nickel and 50% copper. The result would produce a gold colored coin, different from the quarter and not cheap looking." I make no claim to being a metallurgist but doubt that the suggested alloy would have a gold color. Isn't it surprising how much expert advice is available just for the reading?

Numismatic Bibliography—Colorado

The traditional and often prevalent schoolboy opinion of history as a dry and uninteresting subject can be easily disproved by the numismatist pursuing his hobby. A study of the numismatics of an area discloses many of the events and institutions which are a part of the chronicle of a place. Colorado was the site of a gold discovery in 1859, and in 1876 she became a state. In the short period since that time her numismatic history has been rich and varied, including private gold and silver (the well known Lesher dollar) issues and the establishment of a United States Mint in Denver.

The following is a listing of articles and books on Colorado numismatics available for loan to members from the ANA library. No items not in the ANA collection were included but there may be other references which have been overlooked. Any further information, corrections or donations of additional material would be greatly appreciated.

WORLD COIN NEWS

POLAND—Warsaw Mint Strikes Official Coins Honoring Winter Olympics

For the first time in history, Olympic games held in the United States are being commemorated by official legal tender coins minted in a foreign country. Under the authorization of the Lake Placid Organizing Committee, a limited number of gold and silver Polish legal tender coins are being minted to honor the XIII Winter Olympics held in February.

Dr. Steven Hochschild, president of International Coins and Currency, official world distributor for the coins, said, "The international recognition of the Winter Olympics games at Lake Placid is an attempt to put spirit and value back into Olympic coins, and this concept is best expressed through the minting of foreign legal tender coins to honor the games at Lake Placid. The legal tender coins from the Warsaw Mint are the first officially authorized coins commemorating any Olympic competition held in the United States because the minting of Olympic commemorative coins is not a tradition in this country. It is rare indeed for any American-hosted event of any kind to be commemorated on coins issued outside the United States."

The Polish coins, one gold and two silver, depict a ski jumper in mid-flight on the obverse, while the reverse features the eagle symbol of Poland. Only 7,500 of the gold coins will be minted. Of the two silver coins, one bears an Olympic torch mint mark. There will be 31,500 of each of the silver coins minted in Warsaw. All coins in this issue will be struck in proof.

International Coins and Currency, official world distributor for the 1980 Winter Olympics officially authorized coins, recently donated a set of the coins to the ANA. Viewing the coins in the ANA museum's recent acquisition display are: (left to right) Ken Hallenbeck, acting museum curator; David Peebles and David Wittenberg, representing International Coins and Currency; and Ed Rochette, executive vice president of the ANA.

"The spirit of international competition is what the Olympic games are all about," related Hochschild. "The best way to express this concept is through international coinage minted to honor the occasion."

International Coins and Currency, which purchases and resells collectibles such as rare coins, rare stamps and authenticated artifacts, was named official world distributor for the coins by the Lake Placid Olympic Organizing Committee. ISRAEL—Bank of Israel Issues Independence Day Coinage

Silver and gold edition Independence Day coinage to be issued by the Bank of Israel this year will mark the 32nd Anniversary of the State of Israel, as well as commemorate the Peace Treaty between Israel and Egypt. Designed by the Keter-Pessach studio of Kibbutz Ma-abarot, the obverse includes in three languages—Hebrew, Arabic and English—the words "Israel," "Israel-Egypt Peace Treaty," and the appropriate calendar for March 26, 1979. Also featured is Israel's state seal and the dates 5740-1980. The reverse contains the Hebrew, Arabic and English words for "Peace" with an olive branch intertwined.

The .900 silver issue will be minted at the Swiss Federal Mint in Berne in both regular and proof editions with a nominal value of IL 200, 37mm in diameter, weighing 26 grams. The .900 gold issue will have a nominal value of IL 5000, with a 30mm diameter, and weighs 17.28 grams.

For further information, contact the Israel Government Coins and Medals Corporation, Ltd., 5 Ahad Ha'am Street, Jerusalem, Israel.

UNITED STATES—GSA Carson City Silver Dollars Quickly Sell Out

Nearly one million Carson City silver dollars, offered to the public in a sale which began February 8, have been virtually sold out according to the General Services Administration (GSA). The agency discourages further orders.

Roy Markon, GSA's commissioner of the Federal Property Resources Service, reported on February 25 that more than 350,000 orders for the coins were received during the first 10 days of the sale. The 90 percent silver dollars were offered for sale in three categories: 1883-CC (195,745 at $65 each), 1884-CC (428,152 at $60 each) and Mixed Years-CC, 1878-1885 and 1889-1893 (299,390 at $45 each). The sellout should bring revenues of about $50 million to the U.S. Treasury.

The agency's marketing plan for the coins specified all orders received during the first 10 days of the sale would be considered first-day orders. The processing of orders on a random basis is underway. New orders received at the processing center have been and will be returned to the sender.

Originally, prospective buyers were advised they could order as many coins as they wished, but that a limit of 500 coins per category would be enforced during early order processing. Because of the oversubscription, it will not be possible to fill the larger orders. New limits, announced today, permit a single order to be processed for a maximum of 10 of the 1883 coins, 20 of the 1884's, and five of the mixed years coins.

"To provide for a more equitable distribution of the coins among the hundreds of thousands of people who have ordered them," Markon said, "we are simply cutting the pie in smaller pieces to give more people an opportunity to participate in the sale."

The new limits, according to Markon, still do not guarantee that every order in the group on hand will be filled with some coins. "We are processing orders at the rate of about 7,000 a day," Markon said, "so it will be several weeks before people know if they've been successful. We hope all of the participants in the sale will be patient while we tunnel our way through this mountain of mail."

The agency's timetable calls for shipping of coins to begin the third week of March, and for all coins to be in the mail before the end of August. Refund checks for overpayments caused by the lowering of earlier limits will be processed as orders are selected and prepared for shipment. When the inventory of coins has been exhausted, any orders remaining will be returned.

Bill Introduced to Award Medals to Olympic Stars

Frank Annunzio, Democratic Congressman from Illinois, introduced a bill on February 25th to award congressional gold medals to Eric Heiden and the U.S. Olympic hockey team. "At a time when our nation is searching for heroes," Annunzio commented, "we had to look no further than Lake Placid to find a perhaps overlooked hero in a group of undiscovered heroes."

Heiden, who was only the second person in the Winter Olympics to compete in five individual events, thrilled the speed skating world as he became the first person in any Olympics to take the gold medal in all five events, breaking the Olympic record in each and the world record in the 10,000 meter race. The U.S. hockey team which came into the Olympics given little chance for a medal showed the world the strength of American determination with an undefeated record, including an unexpected win over the powerful Soviet team.

"The five gold medals won in the Olympics by Eric Heiden and the ice hockey gold Olympic medals have been awarded. The congressional gold medals will be coming from the American people as a sign of our appreciation and recognition for outstanding performances," related Congressman Annunzio.

Meanwhile, the Senate passed H.R. 6374 to authorize the President of the United States to present on behalf of the Congress a specially struck gold medal to Canadian Ambassador Kenneth Taylor for his efforts in securing the safe return of six American officials from Tehran. According to the measure, bronze editions of the medal would be sold to the public.

NOTES AND QUERIES

PNG Donates to ANA Educational Causes

The Professional Numismatists Guild, which has closely supported the ANA over the years with its Home and Headquarters Fund, Museum Fund, ANACS, and many other endeavors voted at its January 23rd board meeting to make two more donations to the ANA.

The first donation of $2,000 is being given to the general use of ANA's numismatic education, and may be used to further the ANA library, help conduct seminars, disseminate information on grading and authenticity, or in any one of numerous other educational areas in which the ANA has an interest. The second donation of $500 represents a scholarship to be awarded by the ANA to a young numismatist to attend the ANA's Summer Seminar July 13-19. As the seminar's tuition is $249 for ANA members, the $500 check should pay for most if not all of the YN's transportation costs.

Florida International University Offers Numismatic Course

In every community a large section of people have reached retirement and never developed a hobby. With this in mind, Florida International University's Department of Conferences is offering during the spring session, a course in numismatics entitled "Coin Collecting for Pleasure and Profit."

The course has been developed at an intermediate level of curriculum for students, collectors and investors who have a more than passing interest in the hobby and therefore wish to become more knowledgeable on the subject. It is a well-structured comprehensive course, supported by an excellent series of colored visual aids. The class begins April 22nd at 10 a.m. on the south campus and on April 24th at 7:30 p.m. on the north campus. There will be six sessions consisting of two hours each for a fee of $30.

The six sessions include: 1. Introduction to Numismatics and Numismatic Terminology; 2. U.S. Coins and Currencies, their political, economic and historical impact; 3. U.S. Coin Grading and Valuations, Counterfeiting Detection Methods, Authentication and Certification of Coins; 4. U.S. Silver and U.S. Gold Coins; 5. Introduction to World Paper Currency; and 6. Numismatic Publications and Organizations, Coin Investment Potential, Taxation of Coin Collection. For information and a registration form write The Department of Conferences, Florida International University, Tamiami Campus, Miami, FL 33199 or call (305) 552-2137.

New Publication Shows U.S. Coin Value Trends

Coin Charts, a Lanham, Maryland firm, has announced a new publication showing the value trends of United States coins over the past 25 years. The table, Coin Chart #1, includes each of the 86 major types of common date uncirculated and proof coins minted from 1793 to 1933, with coin prices extracted from A Guide Book of United States Coins, (Red Book) by R.S. Yeoman listed for each year.

This comprehensive table is accompanied by a narrative description that can be easily understood by both experienced U. S. coin collectors and potential collectors.

The author, James M. Bieler, is a member of the Numismatic Literary Guild, and has been collecting U.S. coins for 25 years. Three years ago, he compiled data on individual coin value trends from the 1972 through 1977 editions of the Red Book, and published the first edition of Coin Charts of United States Coins.

The price of Coin Chart #1 is $7.50, and it is already available at some coin shops. It may also be ordered directly from the publisher: Coin Charts, P.O. Box 715, Lanham, Maryland 20801.

Food Stamp Change Newsletter Being Initiated

Collectors who may be interested in a newsletter or corresponding club on Food Stamp Change Tokens and Paper Scrip should send a stamped, self-addressed envelope and a 25-word ad (free) to Jerry Schimmel, P.O. Box 40888, San Francisco, CA 94140. In late March or early April a free trial newsletter and a sample token will have been mailed out to those who have written up to that time.

Collectors should feel free to send questions, information, clippings, mavericks to be identified (food stamp only, please!), or interesting samples to be xeroxed. The newsletter is projected to be published at least three times a year. Collectors should not send any money at this time until the level of collector interest is determined.

Food Stamp Change is presently prohibited unless it is given in U.S. Currency, according to a regulation made in late 1978. Tokens and scrip have been issued in all states and territories, including the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico where a wide range of tokens have been used. The collecting of Food Stamps is prohibited under Federal Law, but the collecting of tokens and scrip is not. Food stamp items were issued primarily by small merchants in local communities, although large retail food chains used items in stores serving a number of geographical areas. Tokens and scrip were given for change under $1.00 and came in denominations of 1¢, 5¢, 10¢, 25¢, and 50¢. Metal, plastic, and paper were the most common materials used.

Sherritt Increases Production of Nickel-Bonded-Steel Coinage Material

A new type of coinage material will soon be produced on a large scale in Canada by Sherritt Gordon Mines Limited. The company has just announced plans to build a new plant on the site of its refinery at Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta.

Sherritt predicts that its Nickel-Bonded-Steel (registered trademark) coins and coin blanks will go a long way toward solving the problem that ever-increasing metal prices have created in the world's coinage industry. During the sixties, pure nickel and nickel-copper alloys replaced silver as the basic coinage material in most countries, but nickel and copper are now becoming too costly for low-value coins. The value of the metal plus manufacturing costs is now close to, and in some cases even above, the face value of the coins. The Canadian five-cent piece, for example, contains 3½ cents worth of nickel and costs 2½ cents to manufacture, for a total of six cents.

But less expensive metals are generally too light in weight, too dull in finish, or too subject to corrosion to gain public acceptance. "Sandwich" coins such as the U.S. quarter, made with layers of cupronickel on both sides of a cupronickel on both sides of a copper "filling," don't have these drawbacks but are still too expensive for use in low-value coins. Other "sandwich" coins, with iron or steel cores, meet the cost requirements, but the exposed edges discolour and rust in use.

Sherritt's Nickel-Bonded-Steel, developed at the company's Research Centre at Fort Saskatchewan, meets all the requirements for a coinage material that is attractive at a low cost. N-B-S coinage has the bright, lustrous appearance and heft of pure nickel coinage at about half the cost, and is completely corrosion-resistant. As the name suggests, an N-B-S coin has a steel core completely surrounded by nickel on both sides and around the rim. The nickel coating, comprising about 15 per cent of the total weight of the coin, is alloy-bonded to the steel core. As the core is totally covered by the nickel, corrosion and rust are eliminated.

The initial commercial order for N-B-S, in 1974, was 10,000 parking meter tokens for Peel Memorial Hospital in Ontario. N-B-S coins were first used for legal tender in El Salvador; in 1976 the Sherritt Mint produced 64 tons of five centavo coins for this Central American country. Since that time, Sherritt has produced N-B-S coin blanks for Colombia and coins for Costa Rica; Ecuador joins the list of clients in 1980. Because of its complete resistance to corrosion, N-B-S has special advantages in countries such as these, with hot and humid climates.

Until now, N-B-S has been produced in a pilot plant at Fort Saskatchewan. Initially, production capacity was 12 tons a month; this was later increased to 30 tons a month. But widespread interest in the new material has triggered the company's decision to expand the capacity to more than 100 tons a month in the new commercial-scale plant to be built in 1980, with start-up scheduled for mid-1981.

Sherritt Gordon Mines Limited, incorporated in 1927, began its Alberta operations in 1954. Production of pure nickel strip especially for coinage began in 1961, and the company currently supplies nickel strip to the Royal Canadian Mint and nickel and N-B-S coins and coin blanks to mints and central banks in a number of countries.

New York Auction to Feature U.S. Bicentennial and Papal Medal Collections

Patriotic Americans purchased bicentennial medals beginning five years ago as the nation began its 200th anniversary celebrations. During the succeeding three years, some sizeable collections of these medallic mementos were formed, but few of these large collections have, as yet, come on the market. Most are still owned by the original buyers.

The first such large bicentennial medal collection, along with a set of papal medals and a wide variety of other medallic items, is being offered for sale by the medallic firm of Johnson & Jensen, Danbury, Ct., in an auction to be held during the Greater New York Coin Convention, May 1-4.

Formed by a retired U.S. Marine serviceman, the bicentennial medal collection includes most of the state and national issues in bronze and precious metals. Many of the series issued at the time of the bicentennial are included in the sale as well. Entitled the Robert D. Young Sale, Auction #7, the sale is named after the collector who formed it. Mr. Young died in 1978 before seeing some of the series in his collection completed.

The papal medal collection contains a representative medal from every Pope from 1417 (Pope Martin V) to date. There are 58 medals in all (44 bronze, 13 silver). Most are in exceptional condition and average 40mm in size.

A large number of Paul Vincze medals are also included in this auction along with a small collection of British coronation medals. Ship medals are also being offered, as well as a number of Washington medals and U.S. Presidential medals. Many topical medals are present in both the U.S. and foreign sections.

The auction will take place Sunday, May 4th, the final day of the Greater New York Coin Convention, starting at 1:30 p.m. It will be held in the Classroom of the New York Sheraton Hotel.

Catalogs of the sale are free to all. They can be obtained by writing Johnson & Jensen, Box 1085, Danbury, CT 06810, or calling 203-744-0851. Collectors may also order the prices realized of this sale at $1.00 each, or they may subscribe to all Johnson & Jensen publications throughout the year for $10.00. Subscribers receive all the firm's publications sent by first class mail.

Schwan Study Looks at Political Convention Tickets

Presidential candidates were nominated at informal party caucuses until the nomination and election of James Monroe in 1816. The opposition parties first held formal conventions in 1832 after years of growing dissatisfaction over nomination procedures. Since that time the two major parties and some third parties have met in convention during election years to nominate presidential and vice-presidential candidates, establish a party platform, and perform other party business.

Tangible remnants of these conventions and of interest to collectors are the tickets used for admission to the conventions. These souvenirs have an obvious interest in their historical significance. They have additional significance to numismatists because of the craftsmanship used in their production. From the late 1800s through the 1950s most tickets were engraved by private bank note companies such as the E.A. Wright Bank Note Company or the Jeffries Bank Note Company. In recent years the tickets have been printed by ticket companies by less expensive methods.

ANA member Fred Schwan has undertaken a study of these tickets in detail, the results of which will be published later this year. He would like to correspond with collectors interested in these tickets; specifically, he would like to hear from collectors who have the following tickets: all those prior to 1876, Republican tickets for 1880, 1888, 1928, 1940 and 1952, as well as Democratic tickets for 1880, 1884, 1888, 1892, 1968, 1972 and 1976. While information is needed most on the years listed, data concerning varieties and other aspects of those not listed are also wanted. Interested collectors are asked to contact Schwan directly at Box OF, Pacific Grove, CA 93950.

IN REMEMBRANCE

William E. Elms

ANA 38688

Chosen ANA Outstanding Club Representative in 1973 and a Numismatic Ambassador Award recipient in 1976, William E. Elms died in Brunswick, Maine, on January 5. He had been a coin collector for more than half of his 70-year life and a member of ANA since late 1960.

Elms spent most of his adult life in either police or fire department work. After several years in the Army, he was South Glens Falls, N.Y., fire and police department chief from 1932-39. He was a civilian fireman at the Kittery Naval Shipyard for ten years, transferring in 1951 to the Naval Air Station in Brunswick from which he retired as fire chief in 1968. He was a past chairman of the Democratic committees of both Brunswick and Cumberland County.

One of the founders of the Brunswick Area Coin and Stamp Club in 1962, Elms was a past president of both the Maine and the New England Numismatic Associations. He was a member of the 1975 U.S. Assay Commission and co-chairman of the Maine Bicentennial Commission in 1975-76. Heart problems had curtailed his activities during the past two years.

Survivors include his widow, Florence; three daughters; four grandchildren; a brother; a sister and a half-sister.

Lenny A. Kaitcer

ANA 84063

A former ANA member fell victim to the current reign of terror in Northern Ireland with the discovery on February 9th of millionaire coin and antique dealer Lenny A. Kaitcer, shot to death and left in a muddy ditch outside of Belfast.

Only the day before, 55-year-old Kaitcer had been taken from his plush home on Belfast's Malone Road by three gunmen who bound and gagged his two sons, Martin, 22, and Roy, 20, and shouted their ransom demands for $2.28 million in cash, antique jewelry and gold coins. The ransom was never paid. Police stated that the kidnap-murder had all the hallmarks of a terrorist killing and that the ultra leftwing Irish National Liberation Army (INLA) was their prime suspect.

Kaitcer, whose coin business operated under the name The Ulster Coin Centre, was one of Northern Ireland's leading coin dealers, best known for his inventory of rare and common gold coins of the world. His antique business, also located in the posh Europa Hotel in Belfast, operated as L.A. Kaitcer Antiques, Ltd.

Daniel C. Parker ANA 33653

One of the Midwest's well-known numismatists, formerly of Detroit, died February 7 at his home in Boyne Falls at age 66. Parker had retired recently after 35 years with the Detroit Public Lighting Commission as a power plant engineer.

"Dan" had been an ANA member for over 20 years and had served it as both a club and a district representative. Besides being active in local coin clubs in the Detroit area, he was a past president and held other offices in the Michigan State Numismatic Society and in the Central States Numismatic Society. For the past year or so he had been editor of The Centinel, quarterly publication of CSNS.

Survivors include his widow, Wanda; sons Carl, James and Thomas; five grandchildren; two brothers and a sister.

Nate S. Shapero ANA 24760

A not widely known but very active coin collector, Nate S. Shapero died at age 87 at his winter home in Florida on January 22. Near the end of this year he would have become entitled to his ANA twenty-five year membership medal, although he had been a serious and avid collector for about twice that length of time.

Nate served as a pharmacist's mate in the Navy during World War I, prior to which he had worked as an errand boy in a drugstore. After the war he attended college in Big Rapids, Mich., later becoming involved in the pharmacy business and eventually building a chain of 167 drugstores scattered through 13 states. In his home city, Detroit, his 26 stores operated as Cunningham Drug Stores.

His vast and varied numismatic collection was known to only a few, even of his friends and business associates, until as a director of the National Bank of Detroit, he loaned a portion of it to form the bank's Money Museum, opened in 1960. Later the bank purchased this material; other parts of his collection were sold at auctions in New York City.

Nate Shapero's name has been on the boards of numerous Detroit business and civic organizations, and he was still chairman of the board of his drugstore enterprise. Survivors include his widow, Ruth; son Ray; daughter Mildred Schwartz; six grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Ocean County Coin Club Marks 10th Anniversary

The Ocean County Coin Club of Ocean County, New Jersey, has issued a 2 inch, multi-colored, champléve uniface medal to commemorate the club's 10th Anniversary.

The design features the world famous Graf Zeppelin, gliding above "Old Barney," an historical Ocean County landmark. The Graf Zeppelin relates to the history of Ocean County, as the giant airship moored at Lakehurst before and after its first and only round-the-world 20,000 mile flight in 1929. The OCCC, which boasts an active membership of over 100, was formed in 1970 by a small group of Navy men based at the Lakehurst Naval Air Station.

The red, white, silver and blue medal was designed by the club's immediate past president, Archie Black, and is being offered to the public on a first come, first served basis at $5 each, with or without a loop. Orders for the medal may be sent to Gary Patterson, R.D. 3, 1108 Northhampton Blvd., Toms River, NJ 08753.

White Plains Lutheran Church Issues Commemorative

Rev. Dr. Frederick J. Schumacher, Pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church of White Plains, N.Y., looks on as sculptor Gladys Gunza of the Medallic Art Co. puts finishing touches on the plaster casts of the church's anniversary medal.

Under the supervision of the Rev. Dr. Frederick J. Schumacher, Gladys Gunza of the Medallic Art Company, Danbury, Conn., has designed and sculpted a medal commemorating the 450th anniversary of the Augsburg Confession and the 85th anniversary of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church of White Plains, New York.

The obverse features Martin Luther and Phillip Melancthon, author of the Augsburg Confession. Luther's Coat of Arms is above the pair along with the date June 25, 1530, on which the Confession was presented to Emperor Charles V in the city of Augsburg. The Lutheran princes and theologians hoped to bring about a unity within the then split Catholic church. The attempt failed, but on this 450th anniversary of the division between the Lutherans and Roman Catholics most of the differences at Augsburg have been resolved.

The reverse features the front of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church with the inscription, "85TH ANNIVERSARY · APRIL 28, 1980."

The Medallic Art Company will strike 1,000 medals—800 in bronze and 200 in nickel. Each family in attendance at the church's anniversary service on April 27 will receive a medal. Following that, 100 medals in bronze and 100 medals in nickel will be available to collectors for an $8 contribution to the anniversary fund which is being used to repair the $100,000 stained glass windows within the church. Checks should be sent to St. Matthew's Anniversary Fund, St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, 3 Carhart Ave., White Plains, NY 10605. The first 200 requests will be filled, and the remaining checks will be returned.

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

Applications C-102183 through R-102465 and LM-2430 through LM-2455, as published in the February issue, have been accepted for membership.

The following applications were received in February, 1979. If no objections are filed prior to May 1, 1980, these applicants will become members on that date and notice to that effect will appear in the June 1980 issue.

We suggest that new members of ANA consider dealing only with professional numismatists who, themselves, are ANA members.

ADVERTISERS PLEASE NOTE

All correspondence relating to advertising should be addressed to Advertising Dept., The Numismatist, P.O. Box 2366, Colorado Springs, CO 80901. Make all remittances payable to American Numismatic Association.

DEADLINE: Copy must be received by the 5th of the month to insure insertion in the following month's issue. All advertising copy must be typed.

MECHANICAL REQUIREMENTS: Full page, 28-1/2 x 45 picas; half page may be either vertical or horizontal in format. Single column width, 13-1/2 picas. Halftones should be 133 line screen mounted. Mats and stereos unacceptable. Page position may be requested but cannot be guaranteed.

CIRCULATION: 32,000. No advertising agency commission granted. No discounts other than contract rates.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS: No ads accepted from minors unless accompanied by signature of parent or guardian stating financial responsibility. All ads must have numismatic significance. Because of advance deadlines, prices stated in many ads may be subject to change.

ILLUSTRATIONS: Art should be provided by the advertiser when possible. Photography of numismatic items will be billed at national rates.

CONTRACTS: Available for three, six and twelve consecutive month periods, at 2, 5 and 10 percent discounts respectively when contract requirements are fulfilled. In lieu of contract, reduced rates are granted only upon total advance payment for the period desired. Cancelled contracts will be rebilled at the next applicable rate. If new copy has not been received by the 5th of the month, the previous month's ad will be repeated.

REFERENCES: All advertisers are required to submit banking and trade references when advertising for the first time. Advertisers must be, or have one responsible member of their company, a member of ANA.

COPY: Ad copy must be typed on paper of good quality, preferably 8-1/2 x 11 inches and be legible and double spaced. Ad copy should be on separate sheets and never in the body of a letter of transmittal. Trade names may be used, but, except for the name of corporations, the name of the responsible person of the firm must also appear.

There will be an extra charge for heavy composition.

The advertising department has on file the names and addresses of all advertisers. Any complaints or requests for information regarding advertisers should be referred to the advertising department. The right to edit copy, to require payment in advance, and to decline any advertisement is specifically reserved.

Announcing an exciting new commission package from New England Rare Coin Auctions.

New England Rare Coin Auctions, the firm that conducted the highest-grossing A.N.A. Auction in history, is now offering an exciting new commission package which we call "10/10." Under 10/10, collectors who sell coins at our auctions will no longer pay a 20% commission. Instead, seller and buyer will each share a fraction of the total commission cost: 10% seller/10% buyer. The result: some very special benefits for both parties:

Sellers: You retain 10% more profit!

New England's new commission rate represents a 50% reduction of our traditional selling fee. That means rare coin sellers now retain at least 90% of the prices their coins realize. And because we've kept our 10/10 commission package flexible, sellers of major consignments may even retain more than 90%!

Buyers: You have more coins to choose from!

With the promise of a higher percentage of the profits, more rare coin sellers will be turning to New England than ever before. That means buyers will find more high-quality coinage on our auction block than at any other time in our history — coinage that even the most experienced collectors will be proud to own.

New England's new 10/10 commission begins with our 1980 July Sale.

If you are selling coins, call toll-free today for complete information: 800-225-6794, Ext. #99 (in Massachusetts: 617-227-8800, Ext. #99). Or mail us a list of your coins, including your name, address and daytime telephone number.

NUMISMATIC ACQUISITION OPTIONS

TYPE SET OPTIONS:

United States Type Set (Copper, Nickel, Silver)

For the collector/investor who wishes to assemble a collection of fine quality United States type coins. Nineteenth century specimens will grade VF or better and will be hand selected for their visual attractiveness. Twentieth century coins will grade uncirculated or proof.

United States Type Set (Gold)

Gold has been highly valued by man since the beginning of civilization. United States gold coins are comprised of extraordinarily beautiful and artistic designs. Minted from 1795 to 1933, your set will include specimens of gold dollars, $2-1/2 quarter eagles, three dollar gold pieces, $5 half eagles, $10 eagles and $20 double eagles. Early U.S. gold specimens will grade VF or better and later dates will grade uncirculated.

GOLD COIN OPTION:

Gold, the world's most desired metal, was struck by the United States Mints in coinage form. You will build a portfolio of scarce specimens representing many different dates, denominations, and designs struck by the various mints. Over a period of time you will acquire a beautiful collection of American gold coins. If you have a preference for any particular denomination, please let us know and we will concentrate on your favorite coins.

PATTERN COLLECTION OPTION:

Patterns are coins which were struck by the U.S. Mint as proposals for circulation of new designs, metals, sizes, shapes, denominations, etc. Struck in very limited quantities, they include some of the most fascinating and beautiful coins ever created by artists and mint craftsmen.

This option will enable the collector/investor to assemble a high quality set of United States pattern coinage which will be sure to become a treasured family heirloom. All specimens will be proof or uncirculated.

SERIES COLLECTION OPTIONS:

For the collector/investor who wishes to assemble a complete high quality particular United States coin series. At your option you may select any of the following series. All specimens will be proof or uncirculated.

Indian Cents (1859-1909)

Lincoln Cents (1909-Date)

Three-Cent Nickels
(1865-1889)

Shield Nickels (1866-1883)

Liberty Nickels (1883-1912)

A one and only opportunity.

The one and only A.N.A. 1980.

A one and only opportunity to realize the greatest prices ever for your rare coins.

The one and only
A.N.A. 1980.

Each year, the coin world anxiously awaits the A.N.A. auction sale. It's the most prestigious coin auction in the world, and it happens only once a year.

The A.N.A. auction creates an excitement all its own, with floor bidding at a fast, fevered pace. Indeed, this is the auction that creates numismatic history.

And this year's exciting week-long event promises to be the biggest auction ever. A.N.A. 1980. Thousands of coins are expected to change hands at all-time high prices.

The one and only auction that can draw over 15,000 potential buyers.

Because it is the highlight of the annual A.N.A. convention, the A.N.A. auction enjoys the highest attendance of any other auction. The A.N.A. possesses a prestige that lures thousands of collectors and dealers from all over the world in search of the choicest coins. Some of the rarest and most precious coins are sold only through the A.N.A. Every kind of coin from every part of the world lures thousands of buyers to the A.N.A. If you have coins to sell, there's no time as advantageous to you as A.N.A. 1980.

The one and only
auction with an exclusive, loyal buying audience.

Because the A.N.A. auction is probably the greatest single event on the 1980 numismatic calendar, it will attract earnest, sincere collectors and dealers. Many bidders buy from this auction exclusively. And for many dealers, A.N.A. 1980 will be the only auction they will attend all year. It is these dedicated numismatists who will view every coin auctioned — including yours. That's the selling power of the A.N.A.

The one and only
auction that will market your coins to the fullest.

Steve Ivy Numismatic Auctions will organize and manage this year's auction. We are preparing the most complete A.N.A. auction marketing program ever to give consignors the very best chance to realize the highest possible prices for their coins. For instance, many coins will be featured in a beautiful, full-color catalog, the best organized and most comprehensive showpiece ever published for the A.N.A. This catalog will be viewed and studied by all potential bidders.

Because of the great prestige of this A.N.A. auction, your coins will benefit from a wide range of highly respected national news media publicity as well.

The one and only auction that promises the best prices of the year.

This auction, particularly during this year of unprecedented high selling prices, will capture the attention of the numismatic world. No other auction during the year can claim the same prestige and reputation to draw as many bidders as the A.N.A.

Without question, the A.N.A. 1980 auction presents the finest liquidation potential available to coin consignors today.

This is also the only auction of the year that directly supports the A.N.A. A small percentage of all sales goes to the one national organization serving you, the American numismatist.

So consign with A.N.A. 1980 by calling Bob Merrill toll-free at 800-527-6810 or send in the coupon for our informative brochure, "How to Sell Rare Coins at Auction." And cash in on the most exciting coin auction of the year.

The Market is at an All-Time High

IS IT HARVEST TIME?

In any financial situation timing is important. "Buy low and sell high" is, of course, the ideal market strategem of any investor.

Let us now consider coins. Your coins. For many years you have been carefully building your collection. . . coin by coin, set by set. If you're typical, you've probably spent hundreds if not thousands of hours reading our auction catalogues and price lists, numismatic periodicals, and other publications—not to overlook time spent attending conventions, telephoning dealers, and so on. Chances are that you've spent a lot of time, money, and energy on your collection.

Now in 1980 it may be a time for decisions. It is no longer possible to add rare uncirculated Barber half dollars to your set for $100 or even $500 each. Indeed, $2500 to $3500 per coin must be spent for what used to be considered "common dates." So it is also with Liberty nickels, large cents, double eagles, commemoratives, and most other series. As you have had many enjoyable years in numismatics and as you have built your collection when the time was right, now you may well ask: Is it harvest time? Is it time to take advantage of the all-time high market and cash in, so to speak?

Perhaps you have some other interests in your life which would benefit from a large influx of money realized from your rare coin or currency collection. What about buying that snazzy imported sports car you've been admiring? Certainly you don't want to wait until you are 80 years old to buy it! What about trust funds or help with housing purchases for your children or grandchildren? What about a beautiful lodge on the shores of that sparkling blue lake you've visited so many times? What about a money market fund which provides record high interest and at the same time gives you access to instant cash? Or, perhaps you might want a pile of krugerrands or double eagles to salt away in your safe deposit box. Close your eyes for a moment and dream. . . what things have you wanted but have denied yourself the pleasure of having? Today's record high coin market may make these dreams come true.

While there are many ways to sell your coins, one of the most ideal is via a Bowers & Ruddy Galleries auction. Over the years we have sold rare coins, sets, and collections for thousands of individual consignors. Values have ranged from $2000 (our minimum) to many millions of dollars. As you probably know if you've been reading current numismatic publications, Bowers & Ruddy Galleries holds many world records in the auction field, including the most valuable collection ever auctioned (Garrett Collection, of which just the first part sold for over $7 million), most valuable coin auctioned (Brasher doubloon at $725,000), etc. While Brasher doubloons make headlines, the fact remains that the greatest part of our auction business is made up of individual consignors with modest collections, many of whom wish to remain anonymous.

Is it harvest time for you? If the answer is yes, then I invite you to write or call me today. I will tell you about our "grand format" color-illustrated catalogues which are unsurpassed by any others in the field. I will tell you about our record-breaking prices which have caused the record books to be rewritten. I will tell you about our unequalled worldwide clientele of active buyers, our unsurpassed numismatic staff of recognized experts in all fields from United States coins and currency to world and ancient issues; our competitive low commission rates. And, I will review your own collection with you and recommend the particular Bowers & Ruddy Galleries services especially tailored to bring you the best results. If desired, you may have an instant cash advance right now against the anticipated realization of your coins.

Is it harvest time? In the many years I have been working with auction consignors I have helped thousands of sellers realize record amounts for their coins. But, never before have the prices equalled what our sales are bringing today. Take advantage of the current market and of our expertise. Then you can use the "harvest" of money to make your dreams come true.

I look forward to your telephone call or letter. Or, simply send me the coupon below and I'll contact you.

Sincerely,

Robert Korver

When you decide to sell, you want the highest possible price
for your collection.
So does
Bowers & Ruddy Galleries.

We know how much time and money you have given to your collection, and we treat your property as though it were ours! We are working together to obtain the same result — high prices — since our commission is a percentage of the price which each lot brings.

Years of numismatic expertise go into the cataloguing of your coins. Unmatched photographic illustrations (color and black and white) of important pieces are placed right with the lots. We give you and your coins treatment of an uncompromising nature — to entice bidders to bid liberally.

Don't sell valuable rarities or choice type coins outright. Don't trust the big job of offering them to the collecting public to a little auction firm. If you do either, you will probably not get nearly what you should for your coins. Instead, consider for a moment the valuable qualities which are yours through a Bowers and Ruddy Galleries rare coin auction — qualities which can be yours for just a low commission rate.

Bowers & Ruddy Galleries, Inc.

IMMEDIATE CASH ADVANCES are available in any amount. There is no need to sell your property outright at less than you should receive, because we will gladly give you an instant cash advance the moment your consignment is accepted for auction.

COMPLETE PROTECTION FOR YOUR HOLDINGS. Your property is fully insured and protected in our bank vaults from the moment we receive it—and we will even send couriers to pick up your coins if your collection warrants it. A secure financial settlement following the sale is also guaranteed, for no auction service anywhere is more reliable than Bowers and Ruddy Galleries, a member of the billion-dollar-strong General Mills family of companies. Peace of mind is yours!

PROFESSIONAL REFERENCES. Our founders, James F. Ruddy (retired) and Q. David Bowers, are life members of the American Numismatic Association and are members of the Professional Numismatists Guild (Mr. Ruddy is a recipient of the PNG's Distinguished Service Award, and Mr. Bowers is a director of the PNG), the International Association of Professional Numismatists, the American Numismatic Society, the Royal Numismatic Society of London, and other leading organizations worldwide. Both are widely known for their research and writings in the field of numismatics, including best-selling books on coin grading and investing.

THE BEST POSSIBLE PRICES for your rarities and choice type coins are the result of our famous numismatic expertise, our research into varieties, our superbly illustrated auction catalogues, and our extensive advertising for each auction. THERE IS NO FINER AUCTION SERVICE!

Join the group of satisfied Bowers & Ruddy Galleries consignors next time you decide to sell your collection or significant single rarities (minimum consignment $2000). You owe it to yourself to consider the sale of your coins carefully — so, fill out the coupon below and we'll send you our informative brochure, "How to Sell Your Coins for the Best Price," or call Bob Korver or Q. David Bowers on our toll free auction action number, (800) 421-4224. They'll give you complete details about including your collection in one of our upcoming auction sales.

Mintmaster — Expandable and centrally secured

Basic Unit:

The basic kit comprises simple yet practical elements which allow for further expansion: the base with tray, two frames with trays and a lid. These precisely-fitting parts join to form a unit of three trays, each pulling out to reveal 50 mm x 50 mm compartments. These are delivered fully assembled, with fitted lock and key. Dimensions: 34.5 cm wide, 24 cm deep, 7 cm high.

Robert E. Westfall, Inc.
20 Lake Drive
Pelham Manor, NY 10803
(914) 738-2612

As collections grow, the Mintmaster grows with them. The Mintmaster is constructed to save storage space. A complete unit of 30 trays is only 35cm high. An extra attraction to collectors is the facility of building the Mintmaster into a bookcase, as a "case-within-a-case". The anchorage and central-locking system offer protection against theft, while at the same time being readily accessible when you want to examine or display your collection.

NOTICE to gold sellers

If there's one basic fact of numismatic life that's as sure as snow in Alaska, it's that William Youngerman wants to buy gold. We want to buy your common gold, we want to buy your rare gold, we want your U.S. and your foreign.

Sure, selling your numismatic material can be frustrating. We've seen collectors, time and again, shopping around like puppies at a flower show and end up doing more fretting and stewing than anything else. Now, we don't mind competition, but just remember that William Youngerman is a name that has meant gold since 1967. At any given time, we have in stock many of the true rarities. The only way to get material such as this is to pay through the nose.

We invite you to shop your U.S. or foreign gold for free appraisal and cash offer. We include the full cost of forwarding your coins in our offer. Although it doesn't happen often, if we do not come to an agreement, we will return your coins fully insured and postpaid, with our check for all your shipping and cost. Send your material fully insured, including invoice listing coins, your full address and telephone number. If you prefer, we will fly to buy large estates or collections. Call today and make an appointment to fit your schedule.

Our references include: Professional Numismatists Guild; American Numismatic Association; Better Business Bureau.

What more can we say. Give us a try. You'll be glad you did!

ESSEX DOESN'T TAKE YOUR HARD-EARNED INVESTMENT DOLLARS LIGHTLY...

INVESTMENT DOLLARS ARE SCARCE. You work hard. Then Uncle Sam, the monthly bills, and your family take their toll on your earnings. Not much is left for you to invest for the future. We know you work hard for your investment funds. That's one reason we don't take your hard-earned investment dollars lightly.

GOOD CLIENTS ARE SCARCE. The numismatic industry is quite competitive. Essex must do a better job of serving our clients to survive. And we must be doing something right...we're in our second decade of service! Fair prices, dependable grading, and a receptive attitude are just a few of the ways we let our clients know we appreciate their confidence. Good clients are scarce, the second reason we don't take your investment dollars lightly.

WE WORK TO EARN YOUR TRUST. At Essex, we understand the meaning of the word trust. It is a personal bond. It means listening and helping. It means exercising prudence and care in making judgements. Our personal approach to collecting and investing builds strong bonds with our clients. At Essex, we work to earn your friendship and your trust.

Essex Numismatics was founded to provide a wide range of services to discriminating investors and collectors. We specialize in choice quality Mint State and Proof coins. Our quality selection criteria are strict and our history of selecting winners is superb. May we assist you? WE NEED YOUR EARLY TYPE COINS

The Douglas Weaver buying philosophy can be summed up in one simple rule that we always try to follow:

We would rather pay "too much" for nice, problem free coins than to accumulate an inventory of potential bargains that we need to apologize for.

When we attend major auctions, coin shows, or travel to purchase collections, we do so fully prepared to exceed every other offer in order to come away with the coins we need.

Presently we have need to purchase a varied selection of early United States type coins (1793-1807), to fill want lists and to balance our regular inventory.

It is our contention that when buying early type, each coin must be carefully judged on its own merits and not lumped into general categories of value and condition. We also maintain that much of the current pricing information that is available should be considered as only a very general guide. We are fully prepared to pay "whatever it takes" to obtain nice coins.

If you have something nice to sell in early type please give us an opportunity to meet your price or make an offer. We're confident that you will like our straight-forward, no-nonsense way of doing business.

The Uncommon Market
For Numismatists The World Over

WELCOMES YOUR INQUIRIES

We take pride in the fact that we have one of the largest and most select inventories of gold and silver — U.S. and foreign numismatic coins — in America.

BUY AND SELL COINS AND CURRENCY

We buy and sell any and all numismatic material. MTB is the largest firm on the East Coast dealing in all forms of coinage from bullion to numismatic rarities. Some firms will buy a part of your collection; we will buy it all, world coins and paper money included. Our numismatic division has long been recognized as a leader in quality coinage and as such we are in constant need of new material. If you are looking to buy or sell, it would be wise to check with us first as we are recognized as "THE DEALER'S DEALER."

No collection is too large, so why sell it for less? We will pay you immediately and remove the guesswork as to the price your collection will bring. If the size of your collection warrants it, we will travel to see the material. Remember, when buying or selling, think

At last AN ALBUM THAT REALLY DISPLAYS AND PROTECTS YOUR VALUABLE COIN COLLECTION

For years coin collectors have had to settle for storage and display albums that were far from ideal. Many albums failed to protect the coins adequately from tarnish, hid the reverse sides of the coins, did not allow for duplication of coins in a series and/or made it difficult to view the edges.

Some of them contained spaces for coins which were so rare that "holes" were left unfilled in the albums.

Until now no album has met the needs of the discriminating collector. But the "Flip-A-Coin" Album solves coin collectors' problems like none other before it.

- 1) Each coin is protected from dust, moisture and fingerprints by its own plastic show-case.
- 2) Each coin can be removed and reinserted at any other location in the album, so there is no need for an empty "hole" on any page. They can be arranged according to type, date, errors, or in any desired grouping.
- 3) The edges can be plainly viewed without removing the coin.
- 4) The coin can be pivoted so as to show both obverse and reverse surfaces without turning the page or inverting the album.
- 5) Pages can be added and security maintained because of the screw post binder mechanism.
- 6) The cover, tastefully colored and designed, attractively displays all your coins. There is even a transparent vinyl pocket that holds information.

Basically, the album consists of durable plastic leaves, each with eight holes fitting silver dollars. The hole size and number vary with the denomination of coin from page to page.

The coin is contained within its own plastic show-case that can be sealed from dust and fingerprints. This holder is held in the album by a sturdy nylon pin assembly within the page.

The pins are normally locked but may be released so that the coin can be flipped over for inspection or removed from the album. Until pressure is exerted upon spring action of the pin, the coin is held firmly in the album with no possibility of falling out.

The pages are made of high impact plastic with hinges held securely within the plastic sheets to allow the pages to lie flat for inspection. The vinyl cover is of the screw post type so that each page can be removed or new pages added.

The coins are identified by peel-off stickers which are placed in recessed date slots below the openings. Thus, the collector can place his coins in the album in any way he wishes and still maintain proper identification.

SALES ON COMMISSION

CONSIGN YOUR COINS TO SEABY
AND PAY ONLY 15% COMMISSION ON THE SELLING PRICE.

Seaby is a household name in the coin and medal business. Seaby's Coin & Medal Bulletin has a wider circulation than almost any other numismatic list or auction catalogue. Although our business is mainly buying and selling coins and medals outright, collectors and dealers may be interested in selling individual items or collections through Seaby on commission at 15%. The 15% covers:

- (1) Offering your items to our extensive clientele through our want lists.
- (2) Expert listing in the Coin & Medal Bulletin by one of our 18 specialist numismatists.
- (3) Full insurance coverage.

Clients are asked to consign items to us for a minimum of three months at a minimum of approx. $34 per item. Items over approx. $575 will be illustrated free but will incur a charge of approx. $17 if the vendor wishes an item returned. Items under approx. $575 will be illustrated, if requested, at a fee of approx. $17.

We will give advice on the pricing of material. In the interest of our retail clients, we reserve the right to refuse items which we feel to be over-valued by the vendor.

If you have never seen our Coin & Medal Bulletin, write for a complimentary copy.

Looking For Gem Quality SILVER DOLLARS

It will pay for you to inquire from CHARLES M. ADKINS

I specialize only in Gem quality silver dollars. The quality of the dollars I have in my inventory begins where the others leave off. I stock Gem BU-65 dollars and better proof-like material. I don't claim to have the largest inventory in the business, but I believe I have the best!

Here is but a small offering of the exceptional silver dollars I have available:

MORGAN DOLLARS

1880-P Gem BU (65)	$ 225.00
1884-S Gem (BU (65) Prooflike	25,000.00
1886-P Gem BU (65)	115.00
1886-O Gem BU (65) Full Struck	5,000.00

Special Offer

1890-S Gem BU (65)
1897-S Gem BU (65)
The Pair for $475.00

1894-O Gem BU (65) Strong Strike	$9,500.00
1899-S Gem BU (65)	1,150.00

PEACE DOLLARS

1921 Peace Gem MS (65) Superb Satin Finish Proof Strong Strike! . P.O.R.

If you wish to sell Gem Silver Dollars

I will pay "ASK" for accurately graded Gem BU (65) dollars (most dates) and handsome premiums above "ASK" for 65+ or proof-like dollars. I always need gem dollars and will pay well for them! Ship registered or insured with invoice.

CHARGE IT!!

I accept MASTER CHARGE, VISA, and AMERICAN EXPRESS. Please enclose all information in raised print from your card with your order.

All mail order sales carry an unconditional 30 day return privilege. Postage and insurance for all orders is free! All orders will be shipped registered or insured promptly and carefully after receipt of money order, cashier's check, or upon clearance of your personal check. Want lists from serious collectors will receive my prompt personal attention. New York residents, please include appropriate sales tax.

Your Money and Time Deserve Our Money and Time ... and a Lot More ...

After years of effort, dollars, and hours of study, you have managed to put together a collection of rare and quality coins of which you can be proud. Certainly, your collection is worth a lot more today than it was when you first began. So, why not spend a little more time considering the best method of sale.

Superior Galleries can insure that your coins will bring the highest realized prices possible.

CONSIDER THESE ADVANTAGES:

- * Superior entered the field of numismatics in 1930. Where else can you get 47 years of experience?
- * We are a financially sound corporation, prepared to provide generous cash advancements at the time of consignment.
- * Your collection, while stored in our vaults, is fully insured at all times.
- * With the use of our extensive Numismatic Library, containing over 2,000 volumes, your coins will be expertly catalogued by a staff of professionals who are more than just familiar with your type of collection.
- * We know the importance of quality photographs in assisting mail bidders, we therefore use more photographs than most European or Domestic auction firms.
- * Our auctions are strategically planned around major numismatic events to insure that our sessions are well attended.
- * Our mailing list has been carefully developed and closely screened to provide our consignment with qualified anxious buyers who are prepared to pay realistic prices for quality coins.
- * The promotion of our auction sale begins with the first consignment we receive. Our spacious location in Beverly Hills provides a most comfortable atmosphere and allows every floor bidder the opportunity to view the lots at least three months prior to our sale. We personally contact our active buyers and provide private viewing of your coins.
- * Most importantly, after the sale is over and you have reaped your financial rewards for all of the years you have spent building your collection, our catalog becomes your catalog . . . A permanent record of all that you have achieved in numismatics.

We, at Superior Galleries, are certain that our method of auction sale is the finest available and we have proved it to our consignors. Now, we want to prove it to you. We will be happy to provide you with all of the information you will need as well as a past auction catalog and prices realized so you may judge for yourself.

Simply Simons.

When you finally get around to investing in rare coins, there is but one alternative: M.B. Simons and Associates, Ltd.

At M.B. SIMONS & ASSOCIATES, LTD., we have been in the main-stream of numismatic professionalism for over fifteen years, and our firm is steadily growing. We are one of the most firmly established rare coin corporations in the United States, and we aren't shy about flaunting our credentials: life members of the American Numismatic Association, members of the Professional Numismatists' Guild, the American Numismatic Society, and the Numismatic Literary Guild, as well as all major state, regional and educational organizations. From our headquarters outside Philadelphia we do business around the world and last year Krause Publications (producers of Numismatic News and other noteworthy publications) presented us their "Customer Service Award" for high business standards.

Although we do not claim to be the only noteworthy numismatic investment firm, we are recognized as one the best, and we believe our program is unique and worthy of your consideration.

In a word, we are flexible. Most major coin companies promote programs in which clients are required to subscribe to a regimen of fixed monthly payments. We do not offer such a plan because we feel it leads to certain abuses, and clients wind up with coins they neither want nor enjoy. Our method is to work with you as an individual, in terms of your own investment goals and needs. Only then will we supply you with investment grade material to meet those needs.

Your investment is ultimately your own decision, and should reflect your own taste and intelligence as a result. We are here to advise you and to help locate the right coins for you at the right price. In so doing we have been instrumental in assembling some of the finest numismatic collections in the United States and abroad.

Our coin catalogues and fixed price lists are a guide for you, but your choices are by no means limited to the items we have in inventory. We are, after all, dealers in recognized rarities, and they are not as easily located as a block of common stock! We will gladly locate a particular piece for you if it is available, and we will be pleased to represent you at all major numismatic auctions.

We feel our research department is the best in the business. Our well trained, professional staff spends many hours each week researching price histories and current trends — constantly looking for the undervalued market areas that will provide you with the best possible investment material. In addition, we employ Certified Public Accountants who will gladly advise you on the numismatic investment of private funds, corporate pension plans, Keogh programs, or estate planning.

*Why not join us?
Call or write today.*

The Ultimate Safeguard:
Permanent Registration
Of Your Coins
THE PNG CERTIFICATE

The famous PNG CERTIFICATE provides a fully-documented registration for coins, currency, tokens, or medals which you buy from dealer members of the Professional Numismatists Guild, the leading American association of rare coin dealers.

Authentication and exact descriptions and/or photographs of items purchased from PNG members are recorded on the certificate. One copy goes to you, the buyer. A second copy stays in the PNG member-dealer's files. A third copy, identifiable only by its serial number (thus protecting your identity), remains permanently on file with the Professional Numismatists Guild.

The protection of the PNG Certificate is legally binding. It guarantees genuineness and title (ownership) in case anything should happen to your coins, paper money, or to you.

Its cost is nominal, with the following fees suggested: Free, if the item purchased is over $1000; only $5 if the item is in the $750 to $1000 range; $10 if the value is less than $750. Obviously, the certificate is of greatest value to the purchaser of scarce and rare items.

The PNG Certificate is available only from dealers who are members of the PNG. Only they can give you this important guarantee, certifying ownership of recorded numismatic property.

The PNG is thinking of your safety; shouldn't you? Remember, only PNG members offer you this form of protection. For this safeguard, buy only from PNG members, and request a PNG Certificate when you order.

Want to learn more about the PNG? For the finest in nismatic professionalism, it will pay you to get acquainted with our nearly 200 members. A free membership directory is available from the Executive Secretary.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE MAIL ORDER COIN BUSINESS!

There is no pressure. A buyer obtaining a coin in a neighborhood store or at a coin show, may feel the pressure of the sale at that instant (in front of the watchful stare of the coin's owner). When ordering coins by mail, a buyer can sit down at his leisure and closely inspect his purchase to his own satisfaction without hurry. If the mail order buyer is dissatisfied with his purchase, he may return it for exchange, replacement, or a refund. But what can the buyer do who bought the coin in the rush of the situation and upon closer inspection finds out it isn't at all what he wanted? Or the quality he wanted? He has two options:

- 1) Admits he was a sucker and takes his loss, too embarrassed by his mistake to take it back, or ...
- 2) He takes it back to the dealer (if he wasn't at a coin show, and the dealer is still in town) and humiliates himself by having to explain why he didn't like the coin after he bought it "sight seen." An even worse situation is when the buyer approaches the dealer and is told that the coin was on commission from a "client" and that "I already forwarded the money and will have to get in touch with them and let you know."

LET THE BUYER BEWARE

We know the tired old argument about buying coins through the mail: "but then you're out the postage, time and trouble." But what's a few days and 2 or 3 bucks postage compared to $200.00 lost on a coin that can't be returned for one reason or another? The "fly-by-night" mail order houses and other "scheme" type operations are almost completely non-existent.

With the strict restrictions enforced and the careful eye of the regulatory agencies that safeguard the mails, in addition to the publications themselves which closely screen their advertisers, buying coins by mail has become one of the safest ways of obtaining coins.

We do not intend in this message to turn you away from your local coin dealer, coin club, or coin show purchases. We are only asking that you consider this point of view when someone complains about the mail order business ... whether this complaining is to get your business for themselves, or just plain old complaining for the sake of it without checking the facts first.

We also ask you to check prices, because in most publications the competition is fierce, so prices must be competitive. (Does the coin seller in an out of the way spot have to be competitive when there's not another dealer around for miles?)

WE INVITE YOU to shop for your coins by mail, competitively and without pressure, to buy from any one of the dealers' display ads in this publication (not just ours). Whether you're a collector, investor, or dealer, if you desire the type of merchandise we sell, sooner or later you'll try us once ... and when you do you will have found your permanent mail order coin dealer.

Please check our current ads in any one of the following publications:

Numismatic News, Coin World, Coinage, Coins, Coin Prices, Coin Collecting

We invite you to join our mailing list by sending us a postcard with your name and address on it.

WE THANK YOU

Spink. Nobody knows more about coins.

Spink Coin Auctions have quickly made a big name for themselves. They started in October 1978. And every sale has been a phenomenal success.

We would never have made it without the dedicated work and experience of the men who head up our outstanding team of experts. Men like

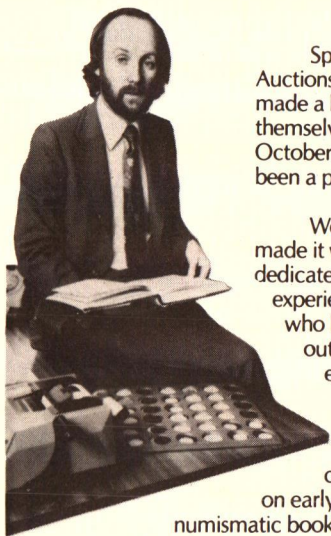

Douglas Liddell,
an authority on world coins and one of the most highly regarded coin dealers in the world. Patrick Finn, an expert on early coins, and author of many important numismatic books. André de Clermont, a widely travelled authority on foreign coins.

And we would never have made it without the tremendous support we received from you — numismatists everywhere. Our first auction realised £264,000. It was just the start of a series of record breaking sales. Including the finest collection of modern Greek coins ever offered for sale. And the most important collection of English coins offered for 20 years. That sale saw the world record price for a penny broken twice in two days.

Spink have long been established as the world's leading coin dealers. Now we are arguably the world's leading coin auctioneers as well.

To all the people who have helped Spink Coin Auctions achieve such enormous success, we say thank you. Spink Coin Auctions are here to stay.

Buying Currency

Prices for top quality United States Currency over the past year have increased drastically; many notes have doubled, even tripled, in value over the past 12 months. This has come about by the old law of Supply and Demand. With the rash of new collectors in this field, the demand has outweighed the supply three-fold. The very popular Educational set has gone over the $10,000 level, and the once-plentiful 1923 $1 Silver Certificate is fast approaching the $100 level. To satisfy our customers' wants, we need to buy and will pay much higher prices than ever before.

No, we do not publish an advertised buy price because we feel the market is much too volatile. We believe in paying TOP MARKET PRICES for Gem quality notes (much higher than some of the advertised buy prices). That's a fair deal, and a good one!

We are also in great need of quality circulated material and do not restrict our buying to Choice and Gem notes. So, if you are thinking of selling, prices have never been higher. Or, if you have a specific note or notes that you have been looking for, try us. Either way, feel free to drop us a line or give us a call to discuss your needs with us—we look forward to talking with each and every one of you!

BUYING:

FIXED PRICE CATALOG AVAILABLE AT $5.00

Every year for the past 20 years, thousands of collectors, investors, and other dealers have found that Robert Hughes has offered the highest prices for their material. As a matter of fact, we estimate that about 75% of our purchases are being made from other dealers. This means you can usually get more by dealing directly with us!

This
buying ad is NOT just a lot of hot air!

We don't dream of large coin purchases. We are constantly making them. Here are the actual figures for numismatic material which Robert L. Hughes has acquired in recent months:

January 1980	$1,008,147
December 1979	$590,700
November 1979	$950,468
October 1979	$1,063,578

Other dealers indicate that they want to spend a million dollars a month. We are! And we want more. We can pay immediately for individual rarities or collections valued at $1,000,000 . . . $5,000,000 . . . and up! The transaction is completely confidential . . . and you can be paid cash if you wish.

If you hear of an important collection that may be for sale, let us know. Robert L. Hughes Enterprises pays generous finder's fees on consummated transactions.

Please call us in confidence on our toll free number (800) 421-0588, except in California—call collect at (213) 278-4950. Ask for Bob Hughes, President, or Gary Gordon, Executive Vice President.

Sorry . . . We are not interested in buying gold or silver bullion or bullion coins (e.g. Krugerrands, bags of common silver coins, etc).

Just Published After Ten Years in Research

This first complete history of banks and banking in Nebraska. The 625 page, 8 1/2 x 11" book includes wildcat, all National Bank Note issues and hundreds of miscellaneous items and checks. Included are thousands of photos illustrating the issue of each bank, sheets, the signers, and in many instances their banks. This and the detailed issuance charts and rarity guides make this the most comprehensive volume on Nebraska banking and monies ever published. Now available, postpaid at $48.50. (paper bound). Special limited, numbered and signed hardbound $74.50 while our final 11 copies last.

SIEGE OF LYON, 1793

For a proposed reprint of Natalis Rondot's classic but little known work, "Les Graveurs du Nom de Moutarde et le Monnayage du Métal de Cloche Pur à Lyon," published at Lyon in 1880, I am gathering illustrations, the original edition having none. This is proving an extremely difficult task, and I would be most grateful if owners of any of the rare 1793 Lyon obsidional coinage, whether original issues or the mid-19th Century apocryphal pieces, would contact me. I am especially anxious to purchase or to acquire photographs of two specimens which appeared in the Howard Gibbs Collection Sale (Nov. 20-25, 1964, Hans Schulman, New York City). These are the 6 Sols, 1793, with reverse legend, METAL PROVENANT DES VIEUX CANONS (Gibbs Lot 4785, where incorrectly described as a 5 Sols), and the 20 Sols, undated issue, with J T on obverse and VINGT SOLS and a lion on the reverse (Gibbs 4790).

Any information that can be supplied or specimens offered to me by collectors or dealers will be very welcome.

RICHARD MARGOLIS

P.O. Box 2054 (201) 224-9581 Teaneck, NJ 07666

P.S. I am always interested in purchasing for stock or for my personal collection rare, choice, and unusual coins, tokens, and essays of the French Revolution and Napoleon, 1789 to 1815 inclusive.

Augusto Dragoni Recollects . . .

"Remember in Kagin's 1977 ANA Auction that beautiful Victor Emanuel III 1903 100 lire in EF?

"Well, I do because out of all the dealers in the world, I paid the highest price.

"Recalling my past acquisitions, I also remember a magnificent piece that I picked up in Superior's June 1979 auction . . . Italy's Humbert I 1878 5 lire in EF.

"Surely you remember that timeless piece I purchased from NASCA's 'London Collection' in July 1979; that rare Papal States 1589 Anno V. scudo in Fine.

"I am interested in only the finest quality, the rarest condition—the ultimate in numismatics. Why? Because to acquire this caliber of material, I have to pay the highest prices available."

MYLAR SOURCE

Stops Coin Oxidation!

Damaging coin oxidation and currency fading caused by "Ultra Violet Rays" from sunlight or fluorescent light is prevented by the use of Mylar. DuPont Mylar is the most dimensionally stable of all plastics. Mylar cannot be torn, contains no plasticizer as in acetate to migrate from film causing deterioration, brittleness, or yellowing. It is unaffected by water, moisture vapor, oils, greases, most acids, alkalis and solvents. At last—Coin and Currency Protection! We now have "failsafe DuPont Mylar, clear lined" coin Flip-Lines. Each comes with information card. No staples or cardboard. Coins are locked in by clear Mylar flap; coins do not touch vinyl.

#201E— Eze Flips—2" x 2" V Film with card inserts, $1.95/25 pcs.; $3.50/50 pcs.; $5.95/100 pcs.

#202E— Eze Flips—2" x 2", card inserts & Mylar lined V-Film, $2.45/25 pcs.; $3.75/50 pcs.; $6.95/100 pcs.

#203V— 2" x 2" V-Film envelopes with flap and Mylar lined, $2.45/25 pcs.; $3.75/50 pcs.; $6.95/100 pcs. and labels

#204 — 2" x 2" V-Film envelopes with flap only, $1.85/26 pcs.; $3.00/50 pcs.; $5.95/100 pcs. and labels

Currency holders of rigid inert Acryliffilm or Mylar lined Acryliffilm and labels:

#206 large or standard of rigid Acryliffilm, open top, $4.95/25 pcs. $8.95/50 pcs.; $15.95/100 pcs.

#207 large or standard of rigid inert Acryliffilm, open top Mylar lined and flap, $5.95/25 pcs.; $9.95/50 pcs.; $18.95/100 pcs.

DuPont Mylar liners only (#22L):

We now have Mylar liner inserts for your own holders. Use in 2" x 2" vinyl, Eze Flips, paper, or other. Use for ultimate long term protection against harmful Ultra-Violet light. 100 pcs./$3.65, 500/$16.95, 1000/$30.95. All with anti-fallout security flap, includes white labels.

100% DuPont Mylar currency holders with labels:

#213KM — large currency Mylar 7½" x 3¼", $3.45/25 pcs.; $5.95/50 pcs.; $10.95/100 pcs. and labels.

#214JM — standard size Mylar, $3.25/25 pcs.; $5.45/50 pcs.; $9.95/100 pcs. and labels.

#215LM — fractional size Mylar, $2.75/25 pcs.; $5.30/50 pcs.; $8.95/100 pcs.

Products of Imagination and Innovation for Coin and Currency Protection. We have long thought quality coin and currency protection housing as a necessity consistent with today's values. We will send DuPont Mylar samples and lists of items for sale for $1.50 or same in postage stamps (our partial cost) by mail only! Many sizes available.

Please send ample postage! $1.50 minimum. $3.50 minimum order.

WE PAY MORE! WHY SELL FOR LESS?

WE WANT TO BUY: Your entire collection is urgently needed no matter what the size, if it contains the items we are looking for. Generally we are interested in any collection which contains Choice and Rare coins and early U.S. coins in AU or better condition.

SELLING TO US: You will find that selling to our Rare Coin Galleries is easy and safe. Here is all you do—Package your coins carefully and send them to us insured or registered mail. You may state the value you wish to receive or send your coins for our generous offer. Upon receipt David Bland, Jr. will personally examine your coins and notify you immediately. Our offer will be in the form of a confidential insured check—cash payments can also be arranged. No collection is too large, (we have over $1,000,000.00 to spend). If your collection is too large to mail please send an itemized inventory to the attention of David Bland, Jr., and we will travel to you if the size of the collection warrants it.

RECEIVE MORE FOR YOUR COINS: Because our needs are so great at this time we will pay more than any other major dealer in the U.S. Why sell your collection for less when it is so easy and safe to sell your coins to David Bland, Jr.?

Paying Top Prices

Not Just A Slogan But Guaranteed Results:

- 1) We are consistently one of the biggest buyers at any major coin convention we attend. The coins that we buy from other dealers have mostly been purchased from collectors. Why not sell to the top buyer?
- 2) Year after year we have bought more collections from collectors than other dealers on a competitive bid basis. We are not afraid to bid against our competitors; we welcome the opportunity.
- 3) We have one of the larger mail order businesses in the country and we are constantly in need of good numismatic material. Since we have the customers we can and will pay more.
- 4) We have never had to pass up a collection because of size. We will not try to buy your collection and then pay you for it as we sell it.
- 5) We spent over 100 days traveling last year to buy coins. Few can match this record. If you have a collection for sale, we would appreciate having an opportunity to show you how much we can pay.

You Have The Following Options Available:

- 1) You may ship your coins to us with the prices wanted.
- 2) You may ship your coins for our offer. We will contact you immediately with our offer.
- 3) Large collections we will travel to see.

HASTY SELLING VS. QUICK BORROWING

Selling your collection can be profitable if you have enough time to find the best prices. But a collection sold quickly is seldom sold profitably.

In any emergency, borrow the money you need at Edelman's. Use your collection as collateral and still retain complete ownership.

At Edelman's, you can obtain quick confidential loans for any amount up to 80% of the value of your properties — from $50 to $50,000 and more. Take as long as 30 months to pay with a repayment plan tailored to your specific needs. Your collection will be safely protected in Edelman's air-conditioned vaults until you reclaim it. Write today for further information.

COLLECTIONS WANTED

We are actively seeking collections—USA, Mexico and Latin American. Any size. If you are seriously thinking of selling your collection, we will either buy outright, trade for bullion coins, or handle thru one of our auctions—whichever will bring you the best price for your collection. We will also consider individual rarities, especially in gold or silver.

If interested, please contact either Dr. George Vogt or Don Bailey. We are also interested in servicing your want list.

WHO KNOWS THE FUTURE?

The Fortune-Teller is America's fastest-growing rare coin advisory. Unlike other (and more expensive) newsletters, it is clearly written with specific recommendations and exact predictions.

In the past three years, our predictions have been extremely accurate. If you collect Silver Dollars, Type, Commem's, Gold, etc., Les and Sue Fox may very well know your numismatic future.

HOLLANDER COIN ALBUMS

The most flexible coin system ever devised

- No unsightly openings • 4 album sizes
- Coins, completely visible on both sides, yet securely held
- Holds coins and medals 8 to 50mm

Ideal for mounting U.S. coins. The 51 different diameter openings make the albums particularly desirable for mounting medals and foreign coins. Free brochure on request.

WANTED! TOKENS & MEDALS related to DENTISTRY

From any and all countries of the world. Please send item or clear rubbing for my offer. Be sure to state if gold, silver, copper, tin, lead, zinc, or whatever.

These are for a collector friend of some 20 years' standing who has asked my help in furthering his collection. Because my friend now lives in a far-away place and only he knows what he already has, I have to forward offerings to him and await his answer. Thus it may take a couple of weeks for you to get a reply from me on these dental items. I will acknowledge your letter upon receipt and will get back to you. If you are a collector and long-time ANA member, I will simply put the two of you in direct contact. My interest in this matter is that of a friend and in no way commercial.

POSSIBLY THE MOST IMPORTANT COLLECTING
BOOK YOU MAY EVER BUY.

SIGNIFICANT!! VALUABLE!!

COLLECTOR/INVESTOR GUIDEBOOK

by SANFORD J. DURST, esq.

(N.Y. attorney admitted to practice U.S. Tax Court)

Written for the Collector/Investor and Dealer, this important volume analyzes in depth all of the periphery areas of collecting things collectors know exist, but often of which they have little or no knowledge.

Specific suggestions and recommendations in such areas as buying a safe, obtaining insurance, estate planning, saving taxes, bidding at auctions, etc.. This book is designed to save you substantially more than its nominal cost.

It includes a simplified inventory section (in addition to the text portion) which will allow keeping records of over 1000 items.

GENERAL SUBJECTS:

Tax Planning
Estate and Gift Taxes
Income and Capital
Gains Taxes
Sales Taxes
Miscellaneous Tax
Provisions
Retirement Funds
Insurance
Wills
Advice to the Inheritor of a Collection
Charitable Donations
The Dealer/Collector
Relationship

SPECIFIC SUBJECTS:

Authentication
Shipping
A Collection as Collateral
Safekeeping and Safes
Customs Procedures
Appraisals

Mint State-70/70 doesn't exist.

We were the first rare coin dealership to state that MS-70/70 is nonexistent. You see, at Musical, we approach the analytical process of coin grading with the utmost scientific objectivity. Because each coin we sell is guaranteed to meet or exceed ANA Grading Service standards.

Write us today with your want list or investment needs. Or send for our FREE booklet, "Rare Coins as a Vehicle for Investment."

ANA CERTIFICATION SERVICE

- Renders an opinion as to whether an item is genuine or otherwise.
- Renders an opinion as to grade on United States regular issue coins submitted for authentication. Coins previously authenticated by ANACS may be graded if resubmitted with the original photo certificate and payment of the grading fee.
- Issues a photo certificate with a registered number on genuine items. The certificate is returned with the item.
- Returns most modern issue items within a few working days. Other specialized items take somewhat longer. If grading is requested, please allow an extra few weeks for this service.
- Cannot: Determine valuations of items—values must be supplied by submittor.
- Cannot: Grade coins that have not been authenticated.
- Cannot: Be responsible for special holders.

Plain Talk From a Collector Who Owns Whitman Classics

When the Whitman Classic Album came out I thought it was just a better Bookshelf Album. But, it's much more.

I Save money with Classics. I can house my entire Lincoln Cent collection, from 1909 to date, for less than Bookshelf or any hinge post album on the market.

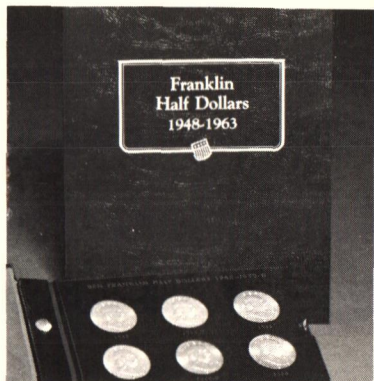

I Don't Worry About Tarnish reducing the value of my coins. The Classic window and pages are specially formulated to retard tarnish and protect the coins' mint luster.

My Coins Look Good in the albums. I like to show my collection to others. The deep royal blue really enhances my coins.

I am proud of the way the albums look when I display my coins. They have clean bold lettering and are of an enduring design. That's why they're called Classics.

Michael E. Strand

Whitman is sure you'll like the Classic as well as I do.

Available at coin dealers and supply stores everywhere. Look for the Whitman signature if you want to be certain.
